Voices of Peace: Middle East Conflict and Reconciliation

The Pacific Christian Leadership Conference (PCLC) held its 23rd online general assembly on July 22 with the theme "Voices for Peace: Fellowship on Conflict and Reconciliation in the Middle East."

This general assembly, based on the biblical passage from Matthew 5:9 "Blessed are the peacemakers," had approximately 600 participants from 17 countries who reflected on the values of harmony and peace.

PCLC Chairman Hori Masaichi emphasized the importance of solidarity centered on Creator Heavenly Parent, and Umberto Angelucci, Vice Continental Chairman of Heavenly Europe and Middle East, shared his ministry experience in Lebanon and conveyed his mission as a peace minister.

Rabbi Michael Shevack emphasized the importance of inter-religious understanding and respect, and stressed the realization of sustainable peace through mutual cooperation.

This general assembly was an occasion to renew their mission of peace as clergy and to once again confirm the importance of mutual cooperation.
