To the Families and People of Venezuela,

On behalf of Women's Federation for World Peace International (WFWPI), I extend my heartfelt prayers and deepest sympathy to all the families and communities affected by the devastating earthquake in Venezuela.

We are deeply saddened by the tragic loss of precious lives, the destruction of homes and communities, and the fear and uncertainty that so many families are now enduring. During this painful time, our hearts are especially with those who have lost loved ones, those who are still searching for family members, and those who have been displaced or left without safety and security.

As an organization dedicated to strengthening families, empowering women, and building a culture of peace, WFWPI stands in solidarity with the people of Venezuela. We believe that strong families and compassionate communities are the foundation of lasting peace. As women, mothers, and peacebuilders, we pray for comfort for those who are grieving, strength for those who are recovering, and hope for all who are working tirelessly to rebuild their lives and communities.

We also express our deepest respect and gratitude to the volunteers, first responders, medical professionals, community leaders, and all those who continue to serve others with courage and compassion during this time of great need. Your selfless dedication is bringing hope and strength to countless families.

Please know that you are not alone. Across the world, the Women's Federation for World Peace International family stands with you in prayer, compassion, and solidarity. Together with people of goodwill everywhere, we pray that healing, peace, and renewed hope will soon embrace every family and community across Venezuela.

Even in the midst of profound loss, the human spirit has the remarkable ability to rise with courage, resilience, and love. May the people of Venezuela find strength in one another, hope for tomorrow, and the confidence that brighter days will come. We pray that your nation will recover with renewed unity, peace, and hope.

With our deepest sympathy and heartfelt prayers,
