

Mission Weekly Newsletter

We hope that our families, friends, and supporters of Next Gen Mission are safe and warm from Winter Storm Fern and Benjamin.

All the missionaries have made it back to Indiana, one way or another, for another workshop.

The senior and junior classes held separate workshops, as during this second half of the year, they will be going on very different missions. The junior class will be sent back out to communities across the country, but the seniors are going across the pond to Europe!

The senior class will go on their overseas mission to either Austria, Croatia, or Romania. Here they will get to know our European family, and support them in their community and witnessing efforts.

To send them off well, the junior class prepared a surprise farewell appreciation for their upperclassmen. Receiving messages of gratitude and prayers of support, the seniors have been sent off with their hearts full of love and support.

Currently, as this newsletter is being sent out, all senior class missionaries are on their flights to their mission countries. Let us pray for their safety as they travel.

The junior class is now preparing themselves to go back to communities, this time period being called Mission 3. Despite the snowy weather, the spirits are high, and hearts are warm. Everyone is excited to go out and serve their assigned communities, whether it is the Bay Area or Little Rock, Arkansas.

THIS IS MISSION.

Mission is not simply a “program.” It is an intentional, significant period in one’s life—a dedicated time to serve the world, to offer oneself fully, and to lay a deep spiritual foundation with God, our Heavenly Parent.

It is a time to experience joy through meaningful mission work, expand one’s heart, and become anchored in a life of purpose.

GOD’S DREAM, MY DREAM

We believe that God has a dream — and when we make it our own, we can help bring that dream to life.
