

UPF Plants the Seeds of Peace in Eastern Europe

Jeong Soon Jo
January 2015

[The JoongAng Monthly, January 2015 Edition] The Universal Peace Federation (UPF) Plants the Seeds of Peace amidst Turbulence in Eastern Europe

The “Eurasia-Europe Leadership Conference” held in Moldova, Eastern Europe from December 5th to the 7th... Personnel from nongovernmental organizations working towards peace strengthen their relationships and network with each other Universal Peace Federation (UPF) has been working tirelessly to quell conflict and bring peace to Eastern Europe. On December 5th to the 7th, the “Eurasia-Europe UPF Leadership Conference” was held in the small Eastern European nation of Moldova.

On December 5th, leaders from many different nations gathered at the 1st floor of the Codru Hotel in Chisinau, the capital city of the Republic of Moldova. These leaders had come to Moldova to attend the “Eurasia-Europe Leadership Conference,” hosted by UPF Eurasia..