Offering 12K Wish Papers For Election Day

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Our sister, Nanae Goto from Washington D.C. has been in the HJ CheonBo Training Center in Korea for some months, and is now attending the 40-day workshop.

She has been praying regularly for the presidential elections in America. While praying in the Cheon Shim Won in Korea, she received a message from True Father spiritually.

True Father said to her that there is still time to pray for the presidential elections, and that brothers and sisters can collectively offer 12,000 wish papers across the USA in their Cheon Shim Won until Nov. 3 for the sake of the presidential elections going according to Heavenly Parent's Will.

Rev. Demian Dunkley, our Regional President, and Dr. Ki Hoon Kim, Cheon Shim Won USA President, suggested sharing this with our brothers and sisters across the country and encouraging everyone who wishes to participate to offer wish papers in their local churches.

You can make a wish paper at your local Cheon Shim Won. To find the closest Cheon Shim Won, check out this interactive map of Cheon Shim Won locations around the country: cheonshimwon.familyfed.org.

A Deeper Connection Podcast

A father of three, David Young is a certified life coach and mindfulness meditation teacher who recently completed a two-year Timeless Wisdom training with Thomas Hübl. Currently, he is training to be a marriage and family therapist. Listen as David shares how he came to the realization that he needed personal healing, kicking and screaming. Working through his relationships with his parents and siblings led him to his current work with individuals, families, schools, and other organizations and businesses. David also speaks about his experience of being with his father during his last weeks of his life, what he inherited from him, and how we can work through anger to find forgiveness.

Having gratitude is a worthy endeavor. But should it be reserved for only certain times of the year?
