The upcoming Matching Networking Meeting on January 31, 2026, offers a supportive environment for families and single members aged 30 and above to explore matching possibilities and take steps toward the Blessing. This continuous, one-day event features age-specific presentations where candidates are introduced by supporters, increasing visibility for those not on other platforms while providing organized facilitation and potential translation support. By sharing profiles before and after the meeting to encourage thoughtful follow-up, the event aims to foster meaningful connections and build confidence for those navigating the matching journey. Please note that to be presented as a candidate, you must first submit your information using the link provided below.

- Candidates who may not be visible on other platforms are introduced
- Profiles are shared one week before and two weeks after the meeting to support thoughtful follow-up
- Facilitator support helps large groups share many profiles in an organized and respectful way
- Translation support may be available depending on regional needs

5 Keys to Deeper Connection

by Myrna Lapres

Tired of discussions about the weather? Tom Pattinson, Positive.News, offers five insightful ways to spark more meaningful exchanges: pick the place, ask 'why' then wait, be more vulnerable yourself, explore values, and stay present. By fostering authenticity, compassionately listening, and truly engaging, these strategies can help us move from surface to substance and make every conversation count. After all, "the most precious gift we can offer anyone is our attention," shares Thích Nhất Hạnh, author of "The Art of Communicating."
