What Choices Will You Make in 2026?

by Myrna Lapres

We are almost through the first month of 2026. Did you make any goals or determinations for the new year? According to an article on Forbes.com, less than 25% of people who make resolutions stay committed after 1 month and only 8% accomplish them. The article recommends having specific attainable goals instead, ones with actionable steps that you can track each day/week. I would like to suggest that you do some thinking about areas of your life in which you want to make different choices.
