July 22, 2014

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Our beloved sister, Kyoko Pickell, passed away at 2:20 AM on Saturday morning. She is survived by her husband Robert and her three children Cheylene, Erbec, and Chai'me.

Kyoko has served Heavenly Parent and True Parents for many years, and was dearly loved by her family and many friends.

Let us support Kyoko's family during this important time and pray for her victorious transition to a glorious new life in the spiritual world.

Following is a brief testimony by Pastor Jamal Johnson of the Pocono Family Church, PA.

Sincerely,

Dr. Ki Hoon Kim

Victorious Life of Kyoko Pickell

It brings the community of Poconos great joy to share the peaceful holy ascension of our sister, Kyoko Pickell. Our sister leaves behind on earth her husband Robert and her children Cheylene, Erbec, and Chai'me.

Kyoko was born in Japan to Korean immigrants, residents of Japan. Robert and Kyoko were blessed in 1982. Kyoko-san was diagnosed with cancer in July of 2013. She was brought home from her doctor's care on Tuesday, July 15. She ascended at 2:20 AM on Saturday, July 19. During the final 3 days at home, she was visited by family and friends who sang songs, made peace, and shared prayers. Kyoko-san wanted no one to suffer. She comforted all teary eyed visitors. She offered “Aju” to every prayer even though she could hardly speak. Our sister is with Heavenly Parent in front of the throne of Glory filled with golden light that pierces all darkness. We are all uplifted by her testimony.
