Dear Seattle Heavenly Parent's Holy Community, Blessed Families, Brothers and Sisters,

One hundred and twenty days left before April 13th 2025. When we will have the Victorious Entrance to the Cheon Il Sanctum in the Cheon Won Gung. I hope that each of you is excited and truly preparing for this historic event.

As a community let us support the preparations for the said event by offering greater devotion centering on the Cheon Shim Won. Come to our Seattle Cheon Shim Won to pray and/or offer wish paper as often as you can, You can also join in our daily evening prayer from 9:30 PM - 10:00 PM, Monday to Friday either in person or online. From 10:00 PM to 1:00 AM Monday to Friday, you are also welcome to join the Cheon Shim Won Las Vegas Night Prayer Vigil. You can come to our Seattle Cheon Shim Won to join or online using this link zoom.us/j/95618120409?pwd=bm3aBdL0C7GACpIarwk0FwFeruGka.1

Saturday and Sunday night, we will have our prayer from 9:00 PM to give us time to share with one another.

We will resume our Peace Starts With Me evening program and Principle seminars soon. We will also activate our Blessing Ministry. Please watch your email for announcements about this.

Our ACLC-SEATTLE will have its December prayer breakfast this Saturday, December 14th from 10:30 AM to 12:30 PM. You are very much welcome to join this gathering. See separate invitation and flyer for this.

Our Adopt-A-Family service project was successfully completed. Korie Faris delivered the gifts yesterday to the program organizers. Thank you very much to all that donated.

Our Seattle Family Church Christmas party is on Sunday, December 22nd. Pastor Nelson Mira is our coordinator for this. Let him know if you want to take part in the program. Also, we will be giving away gift items used by the True Parents while visiting here in Seattle. One for each family. Make sure that you come to receive yours.

Lastly, we have not decorated our church yet for Christmas. I would like to ask for volunteers to help hang our Christmas decorations on Sunday, December 15th after lunch.

We will have Kodan Bento Bazaar for our lunch.

Thank you and Heavenly blessings be with you.

Sincerely,

Rosie Dijan Muyongo
