FFWPU Russia: Hyojeong CheonBo EUME Special Event in Moscow

Alexei Saveliev
June 28, 2026

Over the weekend of June 27 and 28, 2026, Moscow served as the vibrant host city for the highly anticipated Hyojeong CheonBo EUME Special Event. The two-day gathering brought together a dedicated community of faith, fostering spiritual renewal, regional unity, and shared devotion across the Europe and Middle East (EUME) region.

Attendance and Engagement

The event demonstrated strong resonance and high engagement throughout the community, successfully bridging widespread reach with intimate local fellowship:

Total Registrations: A remarkable 770 members officially registered for the special event, reflecting the deep commitment and enthusiasm felt across the region.
In-Person Participation: Among the registrants, 250 people participated offline, gathering live in Moscow to create a powerful, shared atmosphere of fellowship and collective energy.

Key Program and Sacred Ceremonies

The event featured a profound and meticulously organized schedule of traditional CheonBo ceremonies. These core programs provided participants with the opportunity for deep inheritance, liberation, and spiritual realignment:

Ancestor Liberation Ceremony: A sacred time dedicated to untangling historical spiritual burdens and liberating generations of ancestors into the realm of grace.
Ancestor Blessing Ceremony: A joyful culmination where liberated ancestors received the Holy Blessing, establishing a heavenly lineage and restoring ancestral tracks.
Hyojeong Offering Ceremony: A deeply personal devotion where members offered their Hyojeong Wish Papers, sending their prayers, gratitude, and hopes to Heaven.
CheonShim Won Special Prayer Condition (Vigil Prayer): A powerful overnight devotion that allowed participants to connect on a deeper spiritual frequency through intense, focused prayer, bringing immense clarity and breakthrough to the region.

Distinguished Leadership Presence

The significance of the convocation was further elevated by the attendance of key regional leaders. Their guidance, speeches, and presence provided vital support and inspiration to the participants. Notable leadership in attendance included:

Hyojeong CheonBo EUME Branch President Moon In Pyo
Mr. Umberto Angelucci, North East Regional Director
Dr. Andrei Esanu, North East Region Vice Director

The active involvement of these prominent figures underscored the structural and spiritual alignment of the region, reinforcing the core vision of the HJ CheonBo providence.

Conclusion

The HJ CheonBo EUME Special Event in Moscow concluded as a resounding success. By uniting hundreds of members both in spirit and in person, the weekend served as a foundational milestone, revitalizing the hearts of the attendees and strengthening the collective mission of the North East region moving forward.