Q & A

Q: Do we have Ancestor Blessing Ceremony?

A: Not at this moment.

Q: Can I just walk in and attend a Chanyang Session?

A: Yes. Please stop at the registration table and pay the fee before the session (same as above by the age group). Meals are not guaranteed for the walk-ins.

Q: I want to apply for Ancestor Liberation. But I may not be able to attend the ceremony.

A: Your spouse or Blessed child of age 18 and older can represent you. Forms and donations need to be submitted by Friday.

Q: What is the attire for the workshop?

A: White t-shirt (short or long sleeves) and black or dark pants for Chanyang session and Liberation Ceremony.

Q: What conditions should I need to offer to apply for Ancestor Liberation?

A: 21-day 50 bows or breakfast fasting is recommended. For explanations, please click HERE.

Q: Can I bring my Ancestor Liberation form and donation check on Saturday?

A: No. Liberation forms and donations must be submitted by Friday at church. (Check or cash.)

Q: I am a single new church member. What can I apply during this workshop?

A: You are welcomed to attend lectures and Chanyang sessions, and can offer Wish Papers.

Q: What is Ancestor Liberation and who can apply?

A: Great questions! For detailed answers, please visit: <https://en.hjcbt.org/subpage.php?p=blessing2>

Q: What if I forgot white t-shirt?

A: Don't worry. Peace Cup white shirts will be available for purchase. Good quality. $20.
