WFWP Sweden held the first of three cultural events under the title "Empowered by the Arts - United for Peace". The event took place on 26th of July at Stocksundstorps Gård in Stockholm after WFWP received a special invitation. Around 20 people attended the event.

It was an inspiring and uplifting program led by Britta Houston, President of WFWP Sweden, and Lorenz Jolin who spoke about the history of the location and the importance of creating a culture for peace.

Ingela Karlsson did a magnificent poetry performance with her own poems in French and English. Operasinger Kim Jolin sang dynamically, skillfully accompanied by the concert pianist Ulla Schuback, Special guest star: James J. Houston sang soulfully and sincerely: Caroline Williams sang her own peace gospel "Save the world" and got the audience dancing to her own Blues of the Hardhearted woman. Good discussions followed with spontaneous appearances by Pia Isaksson with poetic singing and Rokeya Begum who sang a song from her native country Bangladesh.
