On Saturday March 11th, 2023, the Women's Federation for World Peace Burkina Faso organized a donation activity in support of needy children. The event took place inside the enclosure of the Hotel Maternal of Ouagadougou in Burkina Faso, with a total of 40 attendees. The Hotel Maternal is a state structure that welcomes children in distress, abandoned children, orphans, and all children who find themselves without a family.

With the aim of bringing a little joy and happiness to these children, WFPW Burkina Faso organized a collection of funds and goods to offer a donation of support for the care of these children. Some of our women ambassadors for peace who contributed a lot were also present that afternoon for this activity. The donations made included goods such as diapers, soaps, bags of rice, oil, milk, sugar, clothes, and shoes.

Mrs. OUEDRAOGO Edith, the Acting Director of the Hotel Maternal expressed her deep gratitude to the WFPW Burkina for this thought regarding these children and thanked them on behalf of the highest authorities of the Hotel Maternal and on behalf of all the children for the support provided.

About twenty children were present at the handover ceremony representing the whole group because not all of them could present themselves.

There were crippled children, about twenty babies from zero to 1 year old and at least 75 children from 2 to 18 years old (Unfortunately we were not authorized to take photos or video with the children).

Mrs. KABORE Aimée, the WFPW National President spoke some few words, introducing first of all our True mother Dr Hak Ja Han Moon, as the founder of the WFPW, the true mother of humanity, and the mother of peace. She briefly presented the vision and objectives of the WFPW, emphasizing the major role of mothers, because living currently in the era of women as she said, women must understand better their role in order to assume it well.

Mothers must contribute to the good education of children and succeed in making their family better so that peace can start in the family. Ms. Kabore added that mothers must use their maternal heart to develop a great unconditional love, and sacrificial love not only towards their own children but towards all the children of this world.

And it is with this perspective that the WFPW Burkina choose this month of March, month of women, to share their hearts with the children of the Hotel Maternal.

To end her intervention, Mrs. Kabore encouraged the children to sing a song, which led the whole assembly to share a moment of joy with the children by singing together the song "if you're happy and you know it, clap your hands ...". One of our women peace ambassadors shared candies to each of the children which ended this brief and simple donation ceremony. The event began at 3:30 p.m. and ended at 4:20 p.m.

The Women's Federation for World Peace Burkina Faso's donation activity was a great success, and we hope it brought some much-needed joy and support to the children at the Hotel Maternal. We thank all those who participated and contributed to this event, and we hope to continue our efforts to support those in need in Burkina Faso and beyond.
