In March 2026, Brazil had the profound honor of hosting a series of significant providential events as part of the South American tour of Rev. Doo Seung-yeon, Director-General of the International Headquarters of Missions. Serving as a direct representative of True Mother, Rev. Doo's visit brought together leaders, youth, and families from across the nation, creating a powerful atmosphere of unity, inspiration, and a renewed commitment to the providence.

Building a Professional Foundation: The Launch of Cranes Club Latin America

On March 14, a historic milestone was reached with the official launch of the Cranes Club in Latin America, held in São Paulo.

The meeting gathered approximately 20 pioneering professionals and entrepreneurs from various industries. The primary objective was to establish a robust network rooted in spiritual values that fosters cooperation and positive social impact. Through a series of presentations and moving testimonies, the vision of the Cranes Club was clearly defined: a community of leaders dedicated to serving society through their professional excellence. This launch serves as the seed for a growing movement, with strategic plans to expand the network to over 100 professionals in the near future.

Pure Water Festival 2026: Awakening the Youth

On the afternoon of March 14, the Pure Water Festival 2026 took place at the HJ Peace Center at the São Paulo headquarters. Organized by IAYSP-Brazil with the support of FFWPU and CARP, the event was a vibrant celebration of identity and faith.

Attendance: Approximately 700 youth attended in person, while hundreds more joined via a nationwide livestream.

The Program: The atmosphere was electric, featuring artistic performances by the New Hope Garden Band, a disciplined Tong Il Moo Do demonstration by Sunday School children, and graceful dance presentations by Sung Hwa groups and the Hyo Jeong Team.

The Message: Centered on the “Heart of Holy Mother Han,” Rev. Doo Seung-yeon encouraged the younger generation to embrace their identity as the beloved sons and daughters of True Parents. He called on them to strengthen their unity and sense of responsibility in building a world of peace.

Special Sunday Service: Overflowing with Grace

The tour reached a spiritual crescendo on March 15 with a Special Sunday Service held at the Central Headquarters of FFWP-Brazil. The sanctuary was filled with 850 members, while another 1,100 participated online, all eager to receive the grace brought by the international delegation.

President Samuel Ota Linhares, National Leader of Brazil, hosted the service and emphasized the deep significance of receiving Rev. Doo as a direct representative of True Mother. Rev. Kim Dong Woo, Continental Director of Heavenly Latin America, further touched the hearts of the congregation by highlighting True Mother’s unwavering love and constant care for the South American region.

“Let the love within your hearts overflow to your families, your communities, and all of society.” — Rev. Doo Seung-yeon

In his keynote address, Rev. Doo spoke with deep sincerity, calling for a “New Beginning” centered on mutual respect and sacrificial love. The service was beautifully adorned with offerings from the Sun Hak Choir, the New Hope Garden Band, the Shin Top Gun group, and a heart-stirring dance by the mothers of the Women’s Federation (WFWP).

Conclusion: A Foundation for Growth

Through these three days of intense devotion and celebration, the members of Brazil experienced a profound spiritual renewal. The connection to True Mother’s heart was significantly strengthened, providing a solid foundation for the continued expansion of the providence in Brazil. Leaders, youth, and families left these gatherings with a clear vision and a revitalized determination to advance the mission of peace and unity.
