James Babb has repaired the boiler at the kitchen, replacing it with a Rinnai system.

Ambassadors for Peace invited to Sunday Service:

6th June

The first Sunday of the month was online due to Covid lockdown. Dr John Bellavance gave a sermon and had invited AFP to attend, 10 ambassadors attended and 3 members from Guyana also attend including Young Mi's mother. 2 AFP then followed then attended the DP online introduction after service.

Divine Principle online Introduction:

6th June

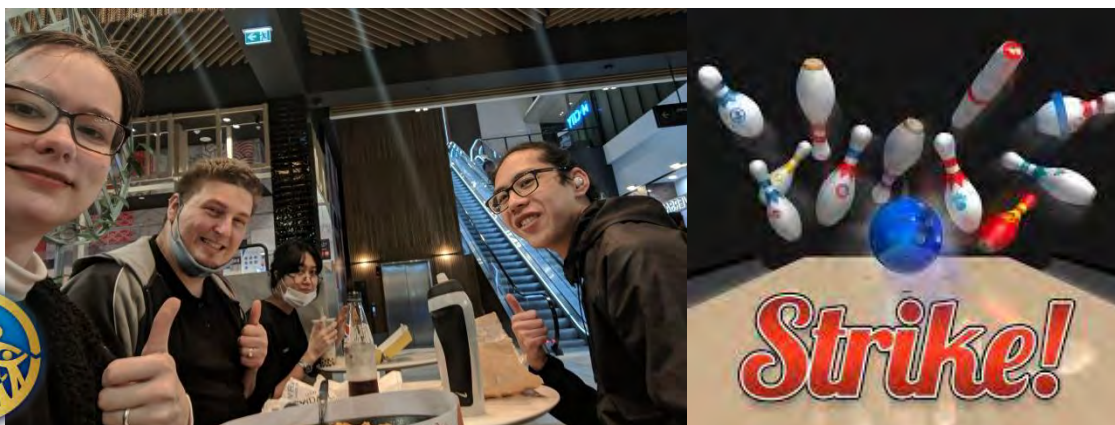

Sunday's DP Online introduction was attended by 3 guests and 10 members. One of the guests is a Christian Minister. Two of the guests have agreed to proceed to the next lecture.

Mindfulness and Meditation Retreat:

19th June

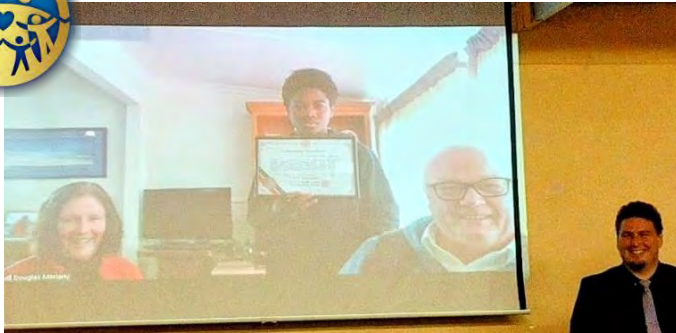

WFWP held the mindfulness and meditation retreat on Saturday 19th at the Belgrave centre. It was very well attended by members and guest alike, drawing a very large crowd that filled the main hall to capacity. We are very grateful to Pres. Anne Bellavance, Suzanna Hoffman and WFWP team.

Youth Outing:

21st June

The youth had an outing this month as part of their monthly meet up. They went 10 pin bowling before staying at the church centre overnight. As is their custom, they helped with setting up for service the next morning.

Wonmo Scholarship Awards:

23rd June

Bless Odjou and Carlos Moriarty received the Wonmo Scholarship this year. We held an award dedication ceremony during Sunday service.
