

WFWP Russia's Angels of Peace Bring Joy to of St. Petersburg Social House

Olga Vakulinsky
April 8, 2026

On April 8, 2026, the WFWP of Russia organized an Angels of Peace concert at the Social House in St. Petersburg. Most of the residents of the Social House had previously lived in orphanages, but due to physical or mental disabilities, they are not able to live independently.

The middle group of the Angels of Peace ensemble, consisting of six girls aged 10 - 12, presented a full one-hour concert of singing and dancing. The audience was overjoyed. They clapped enthusiastically, sang along, and after the concert many came forward to thank the ensemble's art director and the children, expressing their sincere gratitude and love.

The residents deeply enjoyed the performance and warmly asked the Angels of Peace not to forget them and to come again. The children were also deeply touched by the sincerity and warm welcome they received.

This program was held during the Spring Week of Kindness, a nationwide event celebrated throughout Russia.