"The word 'death' is sacred. It is not a synonym for "sadness and suffering." True Parents have created the term Seunghwa [ascension] to explain the true significance of death. The moment we enter the spirit world should be a time that we enter a world of joy and victory with the fruits born of our lives on earth. It is a time for those of us remaining on earth to send off the departed with joy.

It should be a time for great celebration. We should be shedding tears of joy instead of tears of sadness. That is the way of the sacred and noble Seunghwa Ceremony, the first step the spirit of the departed takes toward enjoying eternal life in attendance of God, within His embrace." – True Parents, July 8, 2010

We celebrate the passing of Inje Yeo, husband of Soonyang Lee. Together they have two children, their daughter Jooyoung Yeo and son Jinwon Yeo.

Inje's parents, Sukdong Yeo and Youngok Lee, are part of the 430 Blessed Couples. Inje was born on January 8, 1970, and graduated from Sun Moon University. He was Blessed in marriage to Soonyang Lee on August 25, 1992. He had worked at Seil Travel Company in Seoul and in 2006, they came to the United States and eventually settled in Oregon. He and his wife have been working at their own Sushi Restaurant in Oregon.

Inje passed away quietly after a long battle with cancer. He is survived by his wife and two children.

He was a dedicated and sincere husband and father caring for his family.

A filial son to his parents who are living in Korea. He was a victorious son of True Parents.
