BECOMING THE CHANGE

Founded by Dr. Hak Ja Han, Peace Starts With Me is a global movement rooted in the belief that true peace begins within—when individuals cultivate inner peace and take responsibility to change the world.

By encouraging growth in character, conscience, and compassion, Peace Starts With Me calls people to become peacemakers in their daily lives.

GATHERING THOUSANDS

From iconic venues like Madison Square Garden and Nassau Coliseum to City of Refuge and beyond, Peace Starts With Me rallies have brought together tens of thousands in a shared call for peace.

Through both in-person and digital gatherings, global leaders, faith voices, and everyday citizens unite to affirm that peace is possible—when we begin with ourselves.

SHARING WISDOM

Beyond its large-scale rallies, the Peace Starts With Me Podcast features peace leaders from diverse backgrounds through its podcast.

With 11 Episodes to date, The Peace Starts With Me Podcast invites Americans to live as One Family Under God—not just as an idea, but as a call to recognize the unique role each of us plays in building a more harmonious world.

THROUGH THE ARTS

Music and the arts play a vital role in Peace Starts With Me's approach to peacebuilding—especially through its Musical Masterclass led by A. Curtis Farrow.

While the classes helped develop technical musical skills, their deeper purpose has been to uplift, educate, and inspire participants and audiences – using music as a powerful medium for peace.

INSPIRING CHANGE

Most recently, Peace Starts with Me has been focused on religious freedom through its newest initiative – The Peace Starts With Me Alliance.

The Peace Starts With Me Alliance focuses on creating change on a grass-roots level. By bringing together conscientious citizens in local communities across America, it aims to protect the right to believe for all people.
