Using the example of the olive tree and branch, she also urged us to witness, saying “Let all the people know about True Parents.”

True Mother encouraged the students, saying “Sung Hwa students, you must be the best students in your schools. You must be the best in any environment. You must know that people are watching you. Then what should you do? You should study hard, grow up to become a great person, and then you will be in the position to accomplish True Parent’s goal. Then what will people say to you? You will be victors at that time. I hope you to grow well in health without giving up.”
