You may consider yourself young. The average human lifespan however, is less than 100 years.

Do you understand how priceless it is to have this bond with True Parents during your lifetime of less than 100 years?

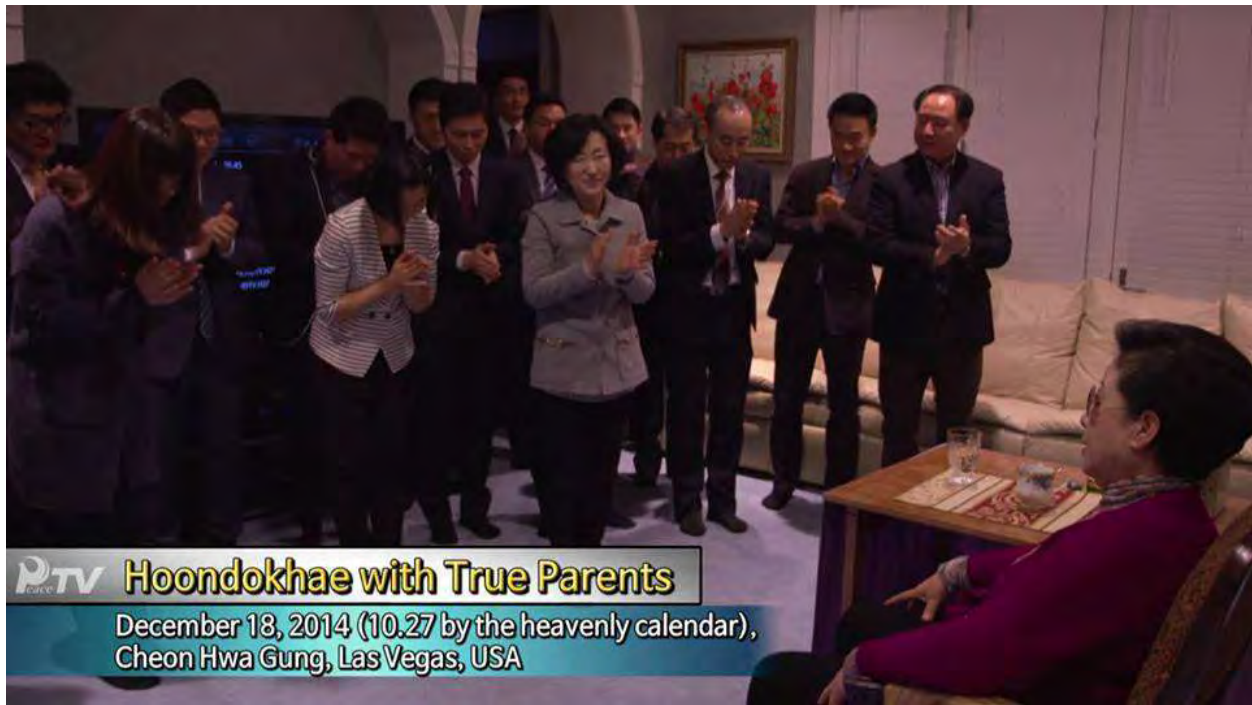

True Parents and Heavenly Parent all yearn for one united world.

This means a responsibility to fulfill. A responsibility. What about us? Haven't you all received the Blessing? You are all blessed families. By whom was this possible?

You became blessed families because of True Parents.

We do not share any blood relationship with the people of the satanic world. They may be our brothers and sisters but they are of a different lineage.

If you are going to embrace all seven billion people of this world as one, shouldn't you be telling them what you know You became what you are because of True Parents and encourage them to join you.

This is what True Parents meant by starting a true-love movement. Its about living for the sake of others. If you can help a person to begin a new life, that in itself is a success. You are giving hope to them. What greater gift is there that you can give during this holiday season.

I hope that you can show them that their brothers and sisters from God's homeland, the homeland of our faith, are different.
