In honor of Veteran's Day, the hundredth anniversary of Armistice Day, and the veterans who have fought to serve America, Dr. Moon donated $13,000 each at the Nassau Veterans Memorial Coliseum in Uniondale, New York to the following four veteran organizations:

Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW), Department of New York, a nonprofit veterans service organization comprised of eligible veterans and military service members from the active, guard and reserve forces. VFW has various programs and services that work to support veterans, service members and their families, as well as communities worldwide. vfwny.com

Union Cyber, a national nonprofit network for veterans that prepares men and women for careers in cybersecurity. www.unioncyber.org

Headstrong, a non-profit in the NY area that offers free, and confidential treatment for post-9/11 military veterans. They provide support and services by veterans, for veterans facing mental illness, PTSD, substance abuse, etc. getheadstrong.org

Black Veterans For Social Justice, a nonprofit that assists military personnel in making a smooth transition from active duty to civilian life. They are dedicated to servicing military personnel, veterans and their families in the areas of social readjustment, housing, employment, compensation, disability, substance abuse, medical treatment, Post Traumatic Stress Syndrome, family intervention, prison counseling and relocation into the community, legal advocacy, discharge up-grade and redress of grievances within and outside the military. www.bvsj.org

It's not too late to show your support by visiting the websites of any of these dedicated and inspiring charitable organizations.
