

The 47th True God's Day Prayer by Hyun Jin Nim

January 31, 2014 (Heavenly Calendar 2014.1.1)

Edmonds Washington

Our most beloved Heavenly Father,

Father, we're gathered here to celebrate and acknowledge True God's Day, the lunar new year—in the solar calendar, January 31, 2014.

Father, we know that throughout human history, humanity has not acknowledged You or recognized You as their True Parent, as their Lord and Master, and their King, sovereign of all the cosmos.

Father, the long, sad history of restoration providence and the providence of re-creation has been a pathway that You have architected throughout history to lead humanity back to Your bosom and to Your heart so that they may be able to inherit their rightful place as Your sons and daughters, as the heirs of all Creation, as well as Your representative of Your sovereign dominion over all the cosmos.

Father, how sad must have You been when the first human ancestors, Adam and Eve, fell away from Your ideal and lost everything that You so longed and wished for them to fulfill. Father, we know that You had given them the gift of co-creation, to be Your direct partners of love in substantiating this ideal, and yet, they fell so short. They lost sight of Your ideal, could not align to Your will, and Your Kingdom was lost.

Father, yet, You had never lost faith. No, You had absolute faith, absolute love and absolute obedience in Your creation, and You realized that there will come a time, there will come a day in which You shall be vindicated, and that Your substantial ideal will be realized through Your sons and daughters.

Father, we know the sad course of restorational history has been a course paid by righteous men and women, although ignorant to Your will, have been sparked by their original conscience and aligned to Your will in whatever capacity that they might have had, to bring and lead Your providence to this point in which a true son could come and substantiate the Principle of Creation, with the ownership over the Tree of Life, Father.

Father, we know that this Tree of Life, as represented in the Garden of Eden, represents the ideal family, the model for building the kingdom of the peaceful, ideal world. Father, the family is the nucleus of humanity. It establishes the most basic and yet fundamental relationships centered upon love that human beings engage in, Father, and not only human beings, but all the Spirit World and even You, Heavenly Father.

Father, we know, Father, how much You have been pained to see Your first begotten son, Jesus, unable to fulfill the providential ideal of the messianic mission. Father, as You witnessed him being tortured, mutilated and humiliated on the cross, Father, You opened the path to the spiritual salvation by giving the Blessing to Jesus and the Holy Spirit to move those who are aligned to him and to his will, to carry Your providence forward for another 2,000 years for the coming of the Lord of the Second Advent.

Father, how anxiously You longed for that day in which Your true son can once again carry the mantle of Your providence forward and substantiate that Principle of Creation that You have so yearned and longed to fulfill.

Father, for the first time in human history, Father, humanity can acknowledge and recognize the position of True Parents. Even the word "True Parents" that have never been mentioned and uttered throughout human history is echoing, although in far distant places in the four corners of this earth, it is echoing and is alive. The ideal family, the concept of the ideal family, the True Family, the Tree of Life, although scattered in remote places amongst the 7 billion people that inhabit this world is being uttered and is still alive.

Father, we know, Father, as we gather here to offer this day to You, this year of 2014 after Foundation Day, (in tears) that this has been the moment in history that You have been waiting for, when your sovereignty and Your dominion can be manifest through Your true sons and daughters who are aligned absolutely to Your will. Father, bless this day, bless this year, and bless humanity's future as we go forward, Father.

Father, as I have prayed to You in this solar new year of this year, we stand so unworthy. We failed You in so many ways, and we also failed our Parents. Foundation Day, which should have been a day in which Your sovereignty could be manifest and proclaimed throughout the world has been such a shameful, pitiful moment, where Your presence, Your glory, Your honor, Your dignity could not be felt by humanity. Yet, as an insignificant moment in time has passed.

Father, as long as the covenant in blood, substantiated in the ideal family, remains alive, Your will shall continue. I pray that You may comfort the heart of my father, and You (tears) can really open up the spiritual eyes, ears and heart of our Mother that have been blinded by false promises and delusions.

Father, we know that this is such a momentous era and moment through which we live in history. Let us find our place by being humble before You, Father, and subordinating ourselves to Your will so that Your will shall be done through us, Father, for that's the only pathway for us to earn the right as Your true sons and daughters. We must lose ourselves so that we may find You, Father.

Father, this represents True God's Day, a day in which humanity can eventually come to recognize Your position as our True Parent, Your position as our true Lord and Master, and Your position as our sovereign of all the cosmos, both the spirit and the physical worlds, Father, and that as Your sons and daughters, that we will carry Your will forward in the spirit and physical realms as the surrogates of Your sovereignty.

Father, we know that You have so much in store for this year and for the coming future of humanity. I know that You have blessed this family that stands before You greatly, and that You have touched my heart in so many ways, for You have been the light that has been guiding me in this darkness, in this hour of tremendous difficulty and challenge. It has been You, Father, and only You, that has been guiding this son through the depths of the dungeons of hell, Father.

Father, yet, it is through You that we can truly find salvation that we can see ahead before us, Father, for Your will is for Your body not to be separated, but to be united as one, that True Parents and True Family that has been substantiated and manifest, and all the Blessed Central Families that are connected to this True Olive Tree shall once again be reborn, and that they should spread throughout this fallen world, Father, to spread Your substantial dominion, Father, throughout all of humanity as well as creation. Please bless us and guide us with Your grace, Father.

Father, I pray, Father, that You bless those that are gathered here today. They have chosen the path of death to stand here before You as Your sons and daughters. I pray, Father, that through their standard and sacrifice, that all other Blessed Families can find the pathway to redemption and to grace, Father, for these are the Last Days. Those who seek life shall find death. Those who seek death and choose to walk the path of death shall find life.

Father, once again, I pray for all those Blessed Families around the world. Let their conscience remember who they are, that they stand as Your sons and daughters, standing in the position of righteousness and truth, of goodness and of conscience. Father, let the challenges that have unfolded over the last 5 years be a footnote in the past, a challenge for a great new awakening within our movement, that can waken those who are sleeping and slumbering, and reveal to them Your true glory, Your true dignity, and Your power as our eternal True Parent, our Master and our sovereign of all the cosmos.

Father, thank You for giving us this time to offer. Although we stand so unworthy, to represent You, Heavenly Father, we're so humbled. You can see in us (tears) the goodness and the capacity to represent Your will. Let us never forget this faith, this love and this obedience that You've had for us, and that there will come a time in which we can stand before You rightfully as Your sons and daughters because we have been victorious beyond any accusation, that we have earned the right to be Your sons and daughters. (tears)

Thank You, Father. Thank You for all that You have done.

All these, I pray in my name, Moon, Hyun Jin, a member of Your True Family. Aju.
