

I Am In Prison With You!

I stood on a hill in the spiritual world and a beautiful landscape stretched before my eyes. It was so peaceful. I thought wistfully of True Father and cried. I had so many questions, so many reflections, so many confrontations.

I felt ragged thinking of the scam that Hyung Jin and True Father got. What is wrong? I felt so insecure in my heart that I no longer wanted to talk to brothers and sisters. I did not want to say anything more. I sank to the floor. Then I heard a voice whispering with love to me:

My dear, I can hear you. This confrontation we have today is my biggest concern. Do not destroy yourself because of it. I can respond to your heart. I can respond to your Heart, always to your heart. I love you. You just do a dirty job, doing what nobody wants to do. You have done nothing wrong .

Unfortunately, we are at war, where many get injured. I am in prison with you. Even True Father is in prison. You must hear me -- I am your loving Father. Tell your brothers and sisters! They can hear me if they open their hearts. I want to scream out to them. Speak out, speak out my truth! Don't look outside, I am within you! Speak of this great injustice that has been done to True Father.

The reason you have difficulty is because you want to do things for me. When you and I are together nothing is impossible.

My heart was in tears because of this incredible love from God. I knew God feels as abandoned as I am. Then an invisible hand stroked my thoughts and wiped away all my worries. A fragrant healing lightness seized my soul. Before my eyes appeared a sea of flowers which bowed before me, as if they wanted to say, we love you! Do not worry, it's all okay!
