When reviewing the scope of the history of the heavenly parents, we learned that the history of the heavenly parents not only took six thousand years, but also the tens of thousands of years of history. For this purpose, for thousands of years, many individuals, families, clans and nations have sacrificed themselves selflessly. The one who descended on the foundation established by these sacrifices is the Messiah. Then, the mission of the Messiah is what? First, he is a person who can demonstrate that the natural principles manifested in humans before the fall are in line with individuals. So can the re-creation of the position of sin show the original principle that was manifested in humans before the fall?

Therefore, when Adam and Eve, who were restored at the same time, stand together in front of their heavenly parents to receive blessings and complete various conditions of relief, this is an amazing picture. The billions of people who have died in history are changing from The spirit world pays attention to us nervously. They are thinking, if they are in our situation, then they will not do a lot of what we are doing, the first thing, the first thing, the first thing, the first thing. Matters, special matters, special matters. Concerns show that any problem is not a single individual problem, but a cosmic problem.

You came here as candidates for blessing, but what conditions do you have to be blessed? In many cases, you have only joined the church for two or three years. From the spiritual point of view, from the perspective of your heavenly parents Look, you are like earthworms in mixed water. In a relationship centered on your heavenly parents, you have not internalized the "principle". Neglect an internalization. Neglect an internalization. Neglect an internalization. In a relationship where the earthworm is the center of your heavenly parents, you have not internalized the "principle". Father and heaven are the same.

A person who understands that he must live in that kind of network is a person who is not worth living. Such a person would be a person who has to live in that kind of relationship network, is a person who is not worth living. Such a person would be a person who has to live in that kind of relationship network, is a person who is not worth living. Such a person would be someone who has to live in that kind of relationship network. Hell is going to be worse. Unity teaches how to live a life that Tenman's parents think is the center of the life, even Hell has to go back. But for trampling The parents are in complete mood, and Kazu who doesn't respect their love despise the parent person. To put it bluntly, there is no way to save such a person. For that kind of person, if there is a way of salvation, it is to realize the ideals of the parents in heaven, realize the ideals of the parents, realize the ideals of the parents, realize the ideals of the parents, realize the ideals of the parents. A loving-hearted person, It will never be forgiven, and will never be saved. After the third seven-year journey, there will never be another blessing.

The Bible teaches that those who have committed fornication are to be stoned to death. Those who have received the blessing of heaven, then are unfaithful, divorced and remarried at their own will, and deserted their blood on the earth, are creating a self. I am very worried about the problem. The kind of sins committed person Noh Jae- appear in the Garden of Eden? Like that person Noh is enough Jae- Is the person Noh Jae-achieving the heavenly ideal to be forgiven by the Candles? There is no "principle" to allow such things to happen. To the husband An unfaithful wife, a husband who is unfaithful to his wife, has no face to let him or her face the universe. They are solid, solid, solid, solid, solid, and unfaithful husbands.
