

The Responsibility of Those Who Know God's Will

Sun Myung Moon

March 23, 1972

Prayer Before European Members in Munich, Germany

Beloved Father, today, guided by You, I have come to Germany, the heart of Europe. Here, Your beloved children have gathered from all over. When I think about the historical mission that must fall on the shoulders of these young people to reach the moment of victory You have planned, I regret that there is no one I can entrust with this task.

Father, from the day I became convinced that Your efforts to raise us up, despite our shortcomings, would not be in vain, I thank You that they have followed the path that led them here under Your protection and have remained united worldwide, regardless of what others may say. Father, as half a century has passed and I still have the rest of my life to fight for Your will, I sincerely hope that You will take responsibility for the remaining course.

Father, many people must protect the entirety of Europe, but they are unaware of Your will, ignorant of the content of Your providence, and do not know how to establish connections with their people for this historical mission. Have mercy on these people, unite us despite our insignificance, and form with us a bridgehead that can remain in the end. I sincerely desire that You provide us with everything necessary to help build the fortress that will defend You from Your enemies as a base for Your victory.

Father, we need more people. We know that we lack economic power and other resources, but economic power is something we can move to some extent with our own efforts. However, we cannot obtain people without Your help.

Father, we are truly grateful for allowing these little children of Yours from all over Europe to gather here at the Essen Center. We must make a new resolution. And as I believe that a final life-or-death battle is approaching us, ignite the fire of heaven in the hearts of these little children gathered here today.

We know that You, who are not on a throne of glory, await the day we liberate You and sing the triumphant song of final victory. In the midst of Your joy, while blessing all peoples overflowing with jubilation, You will be proud of all of us.

I sincerely hope and pray that You help us become children who will fight to the end and organize the battlefield that You, Father, leave behind.

Father, I arrived here after going to the United States and England. As I think of all those who lamented my departure and yearn for the day we will meet again, I pray and fervently hope that You take care of them, unite them in body and mind, guide them towards a world with one purpose, form a tribe and a people heading towards a unified world, and consider them a global mobile unit and citizens of heaven for the restoration of the new Israel.

I thank You for allowing us this meeting and pray that You preside over all our future plans. Thank You for protecting us thus far and for establishing Germany to strengthen the defense line of Europe in a leading role. Since You have already placed it in that position, unite, Father, the hearts of these people.

I also fervently pray that You mobilize the ancestors in the spiritual world to help Germany assume the great responsibility of blocking the last line and confronting the communist world. Placing all time and what lies ahead in Your hands and under Your guidance, I pray all these words in the name of True Parents. Amen.