

True Mother's Surprising Mission

At Washington Monument, True Parents completed the foundation to receive American Christianity, the global level Bride. Nine months later, True Father transferred the Bride's position to all women, represented by one woman.

He referred to modern feminism, saying "This phenomenon of women being able to rise and entrench themselves in power [shows] that the time has come when God will elevate one woman to be the physical Holy Spirit. This is the time for the birth of the true Eve."

Every woman is to be a true Eve, so "Every woman is a candidate for this position, which is why women in general have been given a chance to rise," but all women will have one representative. "God is looking for one perfect woman to summon out of the satanic world, who has the potential to become the true wife and mother and queen, in order to establish her as the first God-centered wife, mother and queen."

This woman's first mission may surprise you: it is that of John the Baptist, to make her husband truly the Messiah. True Father explained: "At the time of Jesus Christ, the role of John the Baptist was similar to the bride's role, and through the execution of his mission the perfected Jesus was to truly become the Messiah. These events of 2,000 years ago occurred on the national level, but the coming of the Second Advent will take place on the universal level, and Eve must take the role of John the Baptist in bringing perfected Adam to the world." The Bride, the Lord's eternal object partner, has John the Baptist's mission, power, and life-or-death responsibility.

It means to be one with True Father. If he goes east, to go east; if he goes west, to go west. If he goes to spirit world, to live at his Bonhyangwon. This is True Mother's life. It means to proclaim True Father throughout the world. This is True Mother's life. It means to embrace and empower all women and bring the world's 7.4 billion sons and daughters to True Father. This is True Mother's life.

Two thousand years ago, John the Baptist's attitude was "he must increase and I must decrease." True Mother's attitude is, "True Parents increase together."

On July 15, True Mother will take the next step. Blessed are those who take it with her.
