

The Exact Location of God

Tyler Hendricks
August 18, 2017

Social science tells us that married people have more sex and are more sexually fulfilled than singles. This means that Ozzie and Harriett have better sex than James Bond and Marilyn Monroe.

Why? As a Christian educator wrote, “Sex is most joyful—most emotionally safe as well as physically safe—when it occurs within a loving, total, and binding commitment of marriage.”

Yes—loving, total, binding, and more than that. True sex, absolute sex, is holy and divine. It is the exact location of God.

St. John wrote that at the Second Coming, “the dwelling of God is with men; and He will live with them.” Where is it that God will dwell in the Second Advent?

In the age of Moses, God dwelled in the Tabernacle’s most holy place. From the time of Solomon, God dwelled in the Temple’s most holy place. In the age of Jesus, God dwells where believers meet Christ. It may be in the sacrament, in the Bible, or in the faithful heart, but wherever it is, that is the most holy place.

St. Paul glimpsed God’s Second Advent dwelling place when he described husband and wife as the image of Christ and the church. John Calvin echoed Paul when he wrote, “Christ has been pleased to put such honor upon marriage, as to make it an image of his sacred union with the church.” But for Paul and John, it remained “a profound mystery.”

True Parents solve the mystery by revealing the essence of the tablets of stone:

“If Adam and Eve, who were created by the Word, had become perfect, they would have become the incarnations of the Word. Instead, they fell and lost the Word. Moses received the two tablets inscribed with the Word. ... This signified the symbolic restoration of Adam and Eve as incarnations of the Word. Accordingly, the two tablets symbolized restored Adam and Eve, and also symbolized Jesus and his would-be Bride, who were to come as the incarnations of the Word.”

It took four thousand years, but through the Holy Marriage Blessing, the tablets of stone have transformed into blessed husbands and wives, the tabernacle into a marriage bed.

(Citations: www.huffingtonpost.com/2012/04/13/marriage-sex_n_1422644.html; www.independent.co.uk/life-style/love-sex/best-sex-married-people-expert-psychotherapist-esther-perel-relationships-needs-a7862246.html; Rev 21:3; Eph 5:22-33; John Calvin, A Compend of the Institutes of the Christian Religion, Ed. Hugh Kerr, p. 184; Exposition of Divine Principle p. 245.)