Taking Stock of the Biden-Moon Summit

Looking to the Future of the Korean Peninsula

TUESDAY, June 1 from 2-3 pm EDT

(NY time)

Hello ,

The international community faces many risks and opportunities in the pursuit of the peaceful resolution of numerous hot button issues with the DPRK and deeply entrenched inter-Korean conflict. For the U.S. and the world, these include nuclear weapons and human rights. For North Korea, these are regime survival, national security, and economic modernization. Korean reunification is the big issue that sits in the back of everyone's mind. We invite you to join a stimulating discussion among the most informed thinkers on Northeast Asia and the Korean Peninsula, as they assess the recent Presidents Biden and South Korea's Moon Jae-in summit meeting.
