The Washington Brief webcast
Escalating Tensions Between
China and Japan

Tuesday, December 2, 2025 from 2 to 3 PM Eastern

Japanese Prime Minister Sanae Takaichi remarked recently that a Chinese attack on Taiwan, threatening Japan's survival, could trigger a military response. A Chinese diplomat in Osaka fired off a text, soon after deleted, about cutting off heads. Now, pushback is escalating on both sides, across trade, tourism, entertainment, and other fronts.

Join guest panelist Dr. Yun Sun, PhD, Senior Fellow and Director of the China Program at the Stimson Center in Washington, DC, along with moderator Amb. Joseph DeTrani, commentator and former six-party talks special envoy, and Georgetown University security studies professor Dr. Alexandre Mansourov, PhD, as they examine what happens when diplomacy's "strategic ambiguity" becomes explicit.
