Yes, the educational content is perfect for people of all nations. However, the process to become a qualified Matching

As a general guideline, you will be able to complete the 7-step program within seven months if you spend just 1 hour per week on the program.

If you're feeling ambitious, you can expedite your Matching preparation by spending 30 minutes per day for a few months.

What's the inspiration behind MatchNet?

MatchNet is meant to answer the questions of Why and How when it comes to the Blessing. Why is the Blessing important to me and how can I prepare? Watch the above video for more about the inspiration.

Why is there a membership fee?

At this time, we decided to prioritize our focus on developing a quality membership program for an affordable price. All of the funds are used to help individuals prepare well for the Blessing and married life through education and community.

All of the content about the Matching Process and how to get Blessed is still available for free and has been for many years.

Blessing, as well as parents who want to know how to help their child navigate the Matching Process.

We encourage parents and children to go through the content together if possible.

There is even a course that is just for parents about the Matching Process.

Can a parent and child share an account?

Yes, we encourage parents and their child to go through the education together, if they wish to. Some families choose to take the courses separately and then discuss the content together, which is also perfectly fine.

Candidate differs depending on your region.

Please check with your regional BFD to confirm your application process.

All course content is currently only available in English. Our end goal is to make MatchNet helpful and accessible to every family in the world.

Is it another Matching profile website?

MatchNet is not a profile-based social platform like other websites. First, it is an educational platform, then secondly, it is a platform for connection. We work to support the already-existing Matching websites of our faith community.
