Orientation Invitation for Married Intergenerational Couples

As we are preparing for the upcoming Cosmic Blessing on May 7th, we would like to invite all married intergenerational couples who may be interested in receiving the Cosmic Marriage Blessing to an orientation meeting.

This meeting is for the couples in which one of the partners was born into the Unification Movement but the other partner was not. We would like to give them the opportunity to learn about Father and Mother Moon and what the value of the Cosmic Marriage Blessing is. We hope to introduce them to the steps they would need to take to receive the Blessing and answer any questions.

This meeting is specifically for the couples, but parents, pastors, and others may join too. After a presentation by Mrs. Yun-A Johnson, we will have separate Q&A sessions for the couples and those who are interested in supporting them on this journey.

When: Saturday, March 25th at 8:30 PM EDT
(repeat session on Saturday, April 1st at 8:30 PM EDT)

food for thought

The Stage of Intimacy—12 to 18 years

The behavior of adolescents is often puzzling and upsetting for parents; they can be moody and uncommunicative. As parents and grandparents, we need to make peace with the reality that we cannot control our teenagers. We can, however, influence them and if our connection is strong, connecting and communication does happen. Adolescents have a difficult time to accept most things without questioning. It is the age of reasoning and thinking for themselves and we need to learn to not take it personally. It is an opportunity to have discussions, ask questions, listen to their answers and offer our own experiences and opinions in a respectful manner.
