Press Release: 8,000 Couples Marry in "Unification Church" Holy Marriage Blessing Ceremony

47 couples of the Unificationist faith community offered their marriages and future families to God this past Saturday evening during the Holy Marriage Blessing (Satellite) Ceremony in Las Vegas. Standing alongside their peers, family and friends, the couples vowed "to become a couple for eternity and build ideal families."

Practice Radical Responsibility

Recently, I attended an "Unconditionally Loving" retreat where we were guided towards living a life of loving without conditions and what we needed to do that. The definition of loving without conditions is caring about the other person's happiness without wanting anything in return. It also includes accepting others for who they are, not wanting the other person to change. Finally, loving starts with caring about ourselves because we cannot give what we don't have.
