The Family Project August Theme

This month's theme for the Family Project is "transitions."

Life is full of transitions, whether it's starting a new year at school, moving to a new state, or welcoming a new sibling to the family. Many times we don't take time to fully process the transitions in our lives, so these activities are geared to help you and your family be present and aware of the transitions in your lives and celebrate them.

Back-to-School--Best Gift to Give Teachers

As many families are preparing their children to start a new school year, I would like to share some parenting advice on how to help your child get off to a good start. Great teachers are amazing! As a former teacher for 25 years, I found that one of the best gifts parents can give teachers involves good parenting. The most wonderful display of our appreciation is to send them students truly ready to be respectful, responsible, and eager to learn. No doubt this gift also benefits our children, who will rise to the top when equipped with such character attributes.
