Staff Reflections:

Anna Johnson - MC

"The Winter Workshop made me feel like there is hope in the new generation. I saw so much investment, talent, and genuine giving, even in trying circumstances, among the participants. This year we had a good bunch of team leaders and a large group of staff which was helpful. The fact that us staff came a day early to prepare was an incredible help and I cannot even remember how we managed without it.

I learnt that having a prayer support team made a massive difference in making me do my job without major distractions. I felt the prayer support and I didn't doubt myself as much as I would have without them. I felt God's presence on the prayer night, the family night and the team discussion night. It was a wonderful atmosphere. It was enjoyable to be an MC, and even though it had its challenges, I did experience God at the Winter Workshop."

Ruth Johnson - Director

"During the festive season, when we all could be at home finishing off that box of 'Celebrations' whilst watching 'Elf' or a 'Muppet's Christmas Carol', plucking off those cosy Christmas socks, and leaving behind the mince pies and the warmth of toasty family living rooms to hastily scoot ourselves over to the crisp Wiltshire countryside, and the hustle and bustle that is Winter HARP Workshops can take a fair amount of will-power, and I am so grateful to all the staff members who offered their time to help on this workshop; whether you came for just the day and offered a heart-felt talk, or offered the entire week to help out, you are all appreciated :)

It is always such a wonderful experience to mark a new year with so many familiar faces, with many of us together to christen the new year every January 1st! I have never wish to be anywhere else in that moment, embracing one another and new things to come.

To the participants, please take time to reflect on the past year and think deeply about the things you would like to improve and nurture. Please seek comfort in prayer and take time to nourish your relationship with God ... he is closer than you think and ready to listen to you. I love you and thank you all for investing your energy into the workshop schedule so willingly.”

Matthew Allen - General Affairs

“It was my first time being both part of the staff team and General Affairs on a HARP workshop. While my role was more focused on the practical side of things, it was nice to be part of the workshop and see all the younger 2nd gen developing themselves. It was great to be a part of a HARP workshop again.

I thought the content of the workshop was particularly strong, it reflected the theme of the workshop ‘Temple of God’ extremely well. It certainly appeared to make everyone self-reflect/contemplate about their own situations and how they could go about improving themselves for the better. It was nice to also see a good mixture of content from both 1st gen and 2nd gen, which was good for providing both relatable and mature perspectives for the participants. Having Matthew Huish come to lecture and also stay for the purity talk was great, especially for the older participants. Keishin’s purity talk also deserves a notable mention, her message was really clear on drawing a clear line on do’s and don’ts as well as looking after yourself.

The teams and participants seemed to get along very well. Having sports on the day they arrived really was good for enabling them to break the ice and bond as a team! By the end of the workshop the teams had found their own identities and seemed close.

Logistically, the workshop schedule was maintained extremely well, everything was on time and ready accordingly.

Overall, the workshop was a great experience. It was a great time for reflection both of the year and for everyone internally. It was also a great start to the new year and a chance to think about realistic goals to aim for in the year; and things we can improve ourselves so we can become a temple for God to reside in.”

Participant Reflections:

"I found each lecture to be interesting and meaningful"

"There was a time where I felt God and it was during morning sports ... we were looking up at the stars and I felt that that was just a little gift/detail that God gave to us just to remind us that he loves us."

"The lectures were so inspiring, I like it when there's 2nd gen doing the lectures and 1st gen because they all have different things to talk about and different experiences."

"I felt God on Prayer night ... I felt relieved of all my troubles and felt as if someone was sat there next to me and I could tell them absolutely anything."

"I felt God whilst doing unison squats for challenge day. It helped me to realise the power and ability to grow that my team were seeking for, and they attained it. They kept on going no matter what."

"The most meaningful moment on this workshop for me was the prayer challenge on challenge day because it really united my team more and gave them more determination. We had to pray for each member of the team out loud at the same time, and everyone was being very sincere and mindful as they prayed and it felt really nice to do this task ... You could really feel the deep love resonating within our team."

"We need to strengthen our relationship with God!"

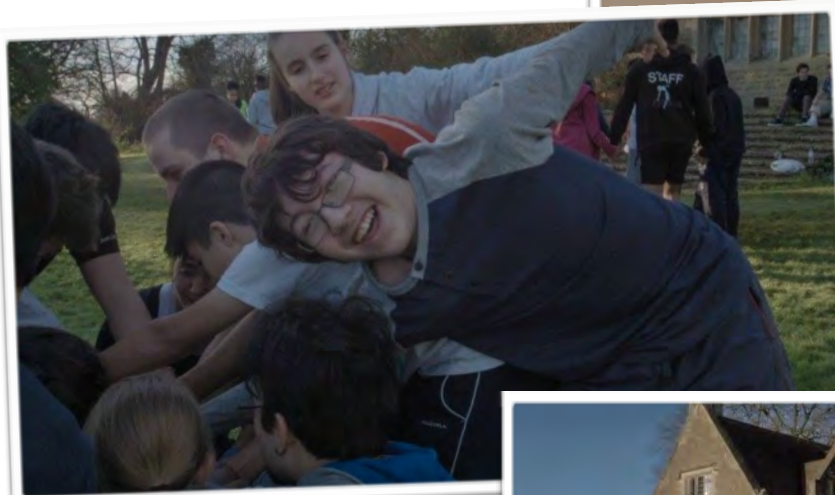

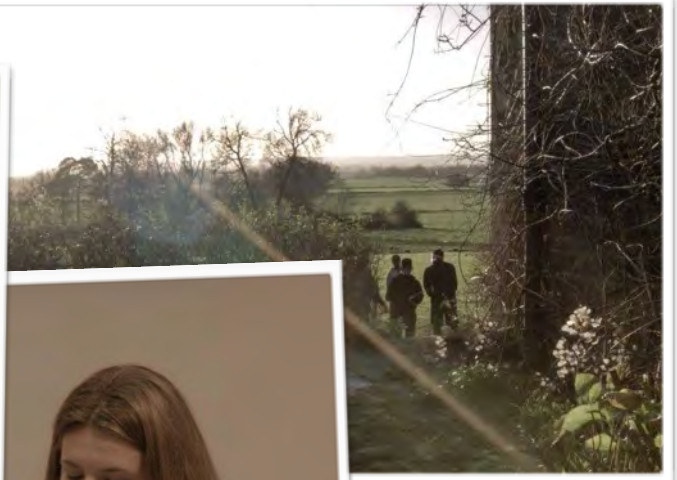

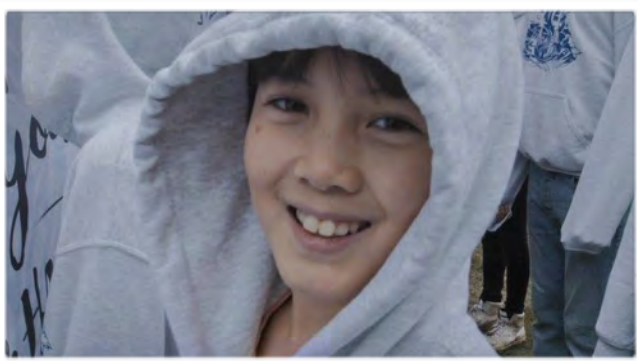

'But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things will be added unto you.'

Matthew 6:33

“God is the Father of human beings, and human beings are His sons and daughters. God created them by investing the core of His being. Truly, He gave the bone of His bone, the flesh of His flesh, and His very marrow. Thus it is that when people pull on God, He cannot help but be pulled along.”

Rev Sun Myung Moon

“Do you not know that you are God's temple and that God's Spirit dwells in you?”

1 Corinthians 3:16
