Message of Peace from The Mayor of Croydon

"We are going to combine all the community together, and I give them a challenge to come up with music so that all these 4 or 5 different ethnic communities in Croydon can do music together and dance together' was the declaration by the Mayor of Croydon, Councillor Humayun Kabir, expressing his vision of bringing harmony among the diverse groups resident in the borough. He emphasised that although individual communities are good at promoting their own art, culture and music, there is a need to bring everyone together – this is the driving force behind his 11th March community celebration event planned in the New Year."

Closure of the BF Matching Website

The International Headquarters Blessed Family Department has been managing two matching websites: BF matching site and the Blessing4U site. However, for the effective support of international matchings and for the simplification of the process, we will use a single website from this year.
