

An Inspirational Weekend with Divine Principle (in Scotland)

Matthew Huish
May 12, 2018

When?

June 1st-3rd, starting 6pm on Friday and ending at 12am on Sunday. Cannot make it Friday by 6pm? Just let us know and we'll work out something for you (late dinner, briefing of the Intro, a special bed next to our friend, etc.)

Where?

The Chalet, at Bonaly Outdoor Center, Edinburgh

(pick-ups can be arranged from Edinburgh airport or train station)

What?

Physical and Spiritual FOOD!!! (about 6-7 portions of each kind, the menu will be prepared by loving cooks and enthusiastic lecturers such as Gustavo Santos, Simone Tammiso, and David Fraser Harris)

There will also be a lot of free time for sports, sightseeing, etc

Friends included

How much?

A real bargain! The Scottish community is very generous and they are discussing to cover more than half of the costs! That means you'll be left to pay less than £35... Isn't that crazy?! There are even discounts available for groups or families. So what are you waiting for? Make your travels arrangements now and confirm your participation J

How to register?

Contact us, Robert and Oksana, by any means of communication you can find about us. But hurry up, because there are only 33 places available and almost half are already taken (:o even before making the official announcement)

Thank you very much!
