The first day (Feb. 5) of the Hyojeong Festival, FFWPU for a Heavenly Korea Family Department Director Seong-bok Hong gave a special lecture providing guidance regarding the CheonBo Holy Wine Ceremony. The guidance session began at 4:10 p.m. at the main hall of Cheonseong Wanglim Palace. Before the lecture, Korean Workshop Department Director Woon-seong Yang, the MC for this session, led the participants in song and praise with "Grace of the Holy Garden" and offered a gyeongbae and a report prayer to True Parents. Following the prayer, Director Hong took the stage and explained the significance and special grace of CheonBo Holy Wine Ceremony and its background in the era of the firmly established Cheon Il Guk.

He also read a hoondok from True Parents' benediction prayer for the dedication of CheonBo Won, revealing the vision of CheonBo Won, followed by another passage from the benediction prayer for the CheonBo Original Holy Wine. As he read through it, all the participants could feel True Parents' sincere heart wishing that all the blessed families can be registered in CheonBo Won. Director Hong also introduced the history of the ideal of creation of Heavenly Parent, and let people know about True Parents' path through much suffering to firmly establish Cheon Il Guk and the great victory achieved through True Mother's seven years of jeongseong. He entreated people to offer their sincere jeongseong more and more to fulfill the mission of becoming true families covering three generations and encouraged each of our unification members to become victors of Cheon Il Guk by making a new start on Foundation Day.

CheonBo Holy Wine Ceremony

At 2:00 p.m. and 9:00 p.m. on the second day of the Hyojeong Festival (Feb. 6) two CheonBo Holy Wine Ceremonies, historic ritual ceremonies, were held as a special grace for the blessed families attending the Hyojeong Festival who had registered for the Holy Wine Ceremony. On the last day of the festival (Feb.8) at 2:00 p.m., an additional Holy Wine Ceremony was held for those on the organizing committee of the FFWPU International Headquarters and execution committee members and staff.

Following the Celebration of True Parents' Centenary and the 7th Anniversary of the Foundation Day of Cheon Il Guk held at CheongShim Peace World Center on the second day of the Hyojeong Festival (Feb. 6), the Korean and international members participating in the first CheonBo Holy Wine Ceremony gathered for the ceremony in the main hall of the Cheonseong Wanglim Palace and the Tree of Love Plaza, and the CheonBo Holy Wine Ceremony for Heavenly Japanese members was conducted simultaneously at the CheongShim Peace World Center.

FFWPU International Headquarters Director Chun-gi Bae, who was in charge of hosting the event, first explained how each family should drink the Holy Wine. As one cup of Holy Wine had been distributed to each couple, first the wife drank half of the wine and then the husband drank the other half, and if there were children, they shared one cup of wine, each drinking a little of it. Following the opening remarks, the participants watched a video screening of True Mother's benediction prayer for the Original Holy Wine, which was provided by Cheon Jeong Gung.

Next, Cheonwon Church of Cheonwon Gung FFWPU International Headquarters District Leader Sang-seon Park offered a report prayer. Centering on President Gi-seong Lee, the Vice President and five Sub-regional Leaders of FFWPU for a Heavenly Korea stood on the stage for the ceremony., and the members who were not able to find a seat inside the hall gathered at Tree of Love Plaza and participated in the ceremony through a live video link.
