Now Daemo nim has become dressed appropriately as part of the royal family in the spirit world and is greeting all the members with a totally refined new look.

Parents are anxious to accomplish the unification of South and North Korea and have been offering jeongseong day and night. Thinking of True Mother, who is leading the providence on this earth, I ask all of you gathered here to remain wide awake and pray earnestly, calling for heavenly works so that your standard of heart and shimjeong can be completely united with Heavenly Parent and True Parents.

In the benediction prayer, President Gi-seong Lee expressed to Heavenly Parent and True Parents his earnest hope that with the dedication of the portrait of Daemo nim, who had been waiting for this day for long time, the atmosphere of Jeongshim Won will become even more spiritually attuned and passionate with Daemo nim attired in appropriate royal garments, and that the world will be bound to Jeongshim Won so that the centers around the world will be completely united with it. In addition, he acknowledged True Parents' sincere jeongseong through which this miraculous place has been prepared so that we can be reborn as a new children through Jeongshim Won and move up to a new spiritual level, and that it is his hope that each one of us will have the true desire to be the right people who can enter Jeongshim Won.

At the prayer vigil which followed the dedication ceremony, President Gi-seong Lee first read the words of True Parents as follows:

"My mother, Daemo nim, and my maternal grandmother, Jo Won-mo, lived their entire lives with faith in order to receive the Returning Lord. They never compromised; they never settled into a comfortable family life. Instead, they totally immersed themselves in serving God with their utmost devotion. Since my mother walked a path of trials and tribulations in order to receive the Returning Lord, I naturally participated in doing so along with her. My grandmother, mother and I would sacrifice anything for the way of the Will. That is why God was continually with our family." (True Mother's words on October 11, 2014 at Cheon Jeong Gung, Chambumo Gyeong p. 155)

The reading was followed by a hymn, a joint prayer (representative), a benediction prayer (President Gi-seong Lee), and a gyeongbae. As those in attendance conveyed to heaven their sincere and earnest wishes by praying passionately in unison, the atmosphere of Jeongshim Won was alight with spirit and the fiery prayers made the prayer hall resonate with heavenly power.
