At 11:00 a.m. on December 31, the HJ Heaven and Earth CheonBo Training Center held their annual ceremony to mark the end of work for the year. The 2020 End-of-Year Ceremony was held in the small hall of Cheonseong Wanglim Palace, with about ten senior staff members attending in person, and the rest of the employees participating through video link.

Promotion Department Director Jong-jin Kim led the ceremony, which began with the following elements: Singing of a hymn, opening announcements, gyeongbae, and family pledge, following which Education Department Director In-seong Moon offered a representative prayer. After everyone watched a video of the Top 10 Providential News stories for 2020, Cheonshim Won President Gi-seong Lee and training center Vice President Myong-kwan Lee took the stage for a cake cutting ceremony with the Presidents of the Branch Training Centers to celebrate the victories of 2020.

After that, Vice President Myong-kwan Lee took the podium and led a resounding round of applause to express gratitude to Heavenly Parent and True Parents for protecting and blessing the training center with a safe year despite the long-term affliction of the Corona crisis which had continued all through the year. After that, he announced to the staff various aspects of a substantial reorganization with personal reassignments involved in combining the CheonBo Education Center, Cheonshim Won and the Cheonwon Gung Cheonwon Church of FFWPU into one unified organization.

Next, President Gi-seong Lee spoke to the staff, emphasizing, "To make the training center a bigger and bigger place, we were given a new name, "HJ Heaven and Earth CheonBo Training Center." Each of us should strive to become people who are more and more respected and suited to this name as we move toward the center of providence. He asked everyone to pray to heaven sincerely from the bottom of their hearts, to bring a great revival and unprecedented blessings completely filling the training center in spiraling numbers like a raging fire.
