

The 2021 Hyojeong CheonBo Autumn Great works

Gi Seong Lee
December 2021

The Hyojeong CheonBo Autumn Great Works that took place this year on October 23 and 24 (Saturday and Sunday) was the 1,530th Chung Pyung workshop. Of course, this year was different from the past. The training center parking lot was not full of cars and no families flew in from countries around the globe to liberate their ancestors or to increase their heavenly fortune through this year's Autumn Great Works.

Instead, they gained those blessings from home. The training center staff managed to duplicate the spirit and substance of a Great Works experience online. It physically took place in what had been the Chung Pyung Training Center and now is Cheonwon Church. That the congregation of the Cheonwon Church was there in person helped those at home to feel quite similar sensations as we would have if we had physically in the room. It felt as if we had just walked through the doors at the back of the hall and sat down in the back row.

The benefits of attending the great works virtually or in person -- the inheritance of heavenly fortune and the fulfilment of wishes were the same; it was indeed an Autumn Festival of Heavenly Fortune for the Great Victory of a Heavenly Unified Korea and a Heavenly Unified World.

Part One

Online resources

The training center staff had prepared online optional features for the 2021 Hyojeong CheonBo Autumn Great Works. Training Center Planning Director Jong Jin Kim, who was the master of ceremonies for part one of the Great Works, introduced four online resources, which were only available during the two days.

The first resource taught meditation for self-contemplation as something to incorporate into one's lifestyle.

Director Kim said, "I hope you will find some time to watch it and reflect on your life."

The second feature was a lecture introducing the CheonBo Leader School (CLS) a program offered by the CheonBo Education Center. The CheonBo Leader School has established field-oriented education programs based on purification and education. Each of these programs is called a "school." CheonBo Leader School One helps new guests understand Heavenly Parent's Holy Community by studying the Divine Principle and True Parents' life courses, gradually guiding them to become FFWPU members. CheonBo Leader School Two is a training course on management for heavenly tribal messiahs and teaches how to lead home groups. CheonBo Leader School Three guides leaders to gain the necessary skills for operating CheonBo home churches as true heavenly tribal messiahs by guiding CheonBo couples to develop various coaching techniques.

The third feature was a lecture on improving family relationships, which among other points explained differences between men and women and offered tips on methods of conversation so that couples could find ways of communicating more effectively.

The fourth special feature was a 360-degree Virtual Reality Pilgrimage from the Hanwon Jip (a teahouse constructed in traditional Korean style) up the Path of Heavenly Fortune to Heavenly Fortune Peak.

Great works

The Autumn CheonBo Great Works began with a hyojeong cultural performance as a means of expressing gratitude for the grace everyone was about to receive during their time together centering on Heavenly Parent and the True Parents of Heaven, Earth and Humankind.

Happy Band, comprising ten musicians, preformed "Sing Praise," "Day of Glory" and "Grace." This was followed by a clapping session for the liberation of ancestors.

Following that, Ms. Gayeon Kim, the head of the Mind–Body Therapy Center, demonstrated Cheon Il Guk Hyojeong Exercises. She told the participants, "All of us at the Mind–Body Therapy Center do these Hyojeong Cheon Il Guk exercises accompanied by Korean Gugak [national, traditional] music for the safe settlement of heavenly Korea and the restoration of all things.... Through these Hyojeong Cheon Il Guk Exercises, I hope your body and mind will bloom anew in harmony and that you will be re-created as beautiful, fragrant CheonBo flowers." Following this was a Hyojeong Testimony (See page 35).

MC Kim then took the podium and declared, "From the True Parents of Heaven, Earth and Humankind, who have direct dominion, together with Hyo Jin nim, who opened and liberated heaven so it resembles a flower garden, Heung Jin nim, commander-in-chief of spirit world, Dae-mo nim, who offered a life devoted to heaven with loyalty, and the absolute good spirits, we have been given the opportunity to hold a Hyojeong CheonBo Special Chanyang Session." Members throughout the world joined those in True Parents' homeland in doing ansu.

Entertainment

A team of Japanese members performed a traditional dance to the song, "Soran Bushi," which is about fishermen encouraging one another to put all their effort into rowing a boat on the high seas. They had caught many fish, so the boat was heavy-laden. The dancers portrayed the fishermen as well as the ocean waves. The energy the dancers exuded fit the music perfectly and could be felt through one's computer screen.

Part Two

The Hyojeong CheonBo Special Commemorative Ceremony for the 2021 Autumn Hyojeong CheonBo Great Works

During the CheonBo Great Works, they held a Hyojeong Offering Ceremony for the Inheritance of Heavenly Fortune, gathering the jeongseong offered by members around the world for the establishment of a heavenly unified Korea and a heavenly unified world. Also, during this Great Works, a Great Festival for the Blessing of All Things was an opportunity for each family to inherit a special holy candle and to participate in a special unison prayer that was conducted at the Tree of All Things.

Additionally, the Hyojeong Offering Ceremony for Purification was a special grace expunging all the traces and memories of sin from our ancestors that have become absolute good spirits. The leaders and regular members who attended the CheonBo Great Works were filled with tremendous grace and blessing through the Hyojeong Offering Ceremony for Purification.

Prayer at the Tree of All Things

Rev. Myung-gwan Lee, master of ceremonies for Part Two of the Great Works and the vice-president of the training center said to the gathering of members, "Let's put our hands together with a heart of gratitude toward our True Parents of Heaven, Earth and Humankind for the great grace and blessing that we will receive through this 2021 Autumn Hyojeong CheonBo Special Great Works.

"The theme of the CheonBo Great Works," he added, "is the successful establishment of a heavenly unified Korea and a heavenly unified world. We offer our deepest gratitude to Heavenly Parent and the True Parents of Heaven, Earth and Humankind who have given the greatest blessing of the inheritance of the special holy candle at the Tree of All Things. I would like to gather all the devotion of members from around the world and offer this prayer in the name of Myung-gwan Lee, a blessed central family member. Aju, aju, aju." Fumiko Goto, a soprano then sang "Amazing Grace"

Ancestor Blessing

Our ancestors from the first generation to the 430th who are participating in today's Blessing Ceremony are entering the hall to receive the Blessing. They have participated in the one-hundred-day workshop at the training center in the spiritual world and have become very beautiful, as clear and clean as crystal. They are now entering to receive the Blessing.

Officiator Gi-seong Lee's Address

If blessed families on earth become the owners of Cheon Il Guk and live lives centering on true love and support the movement to advance toward the unification of a heavenly world in the subject position with the earthly world in the object position, the substantial establishment of Cheon Il Guk will be accomplished. As a result, miraculous things will happen.

The Cheonshimwon providence is taking place in order that this may be achieved. So, please become heavenly tribal messiah families who can be registered as CheonBo families and become Cheon Il Guk citizens by centering on Cheonshimwon, which is the main hall of jeongseong, the main hall of spiritual growth and the main hall of the spiritual providence and offer extreme jeongseong. You must attend Heavenly Parent so that the absolute good spiritual world can do its work. As a result, you need to become heavenly tribal messiah families and register as CheonBo families and become perfected Cheon Il Guk citizens. Wishing you success in all of this, I would like to finish my speech.

Participants then guided their ancestors through the holy wine and holy water ceremonies. After a benediction prayer there was the exchange of rings, the proclamation of the Blessing, and to finish they all enjoyed a congratulatory song.
