I hope you're doing well.

The 1407th Tianxin Garden is sincere all night

Summary

120 people Shokuchi are offering Tenshinko Seishin in front of the detention center today, and some Shokuchi have been offering relay seishin until 6:00 in the morning. Four UPA students from a certain University walked in the rain for three days to the detention center to offer their sincerity, and prayed with tears in front of the detention center. The 62 Japanese exchange students of Chonbun University spent the fall and evening vacation to dedicate special serenity in Honjo for three days. On the eve of the autumn evening, the students of the spiritual academy held an intensive prayer meeting in front of the detention center for the peace of their mother, and thousands of people attended online. If all the foods of the whole world will devote their sincerity with Mother, resonate with the spiritual flesh and become one with Holy Mother Han, I believe that the spiritual contents that are tormenting you will soon be resolved.

Proof of a mentality

As a fifth spiritual trainee, when she gave evidence in front of her mother about her encounter with her father in a dream, she was moved by tears and said, 'The little needles I need to look for are children who know my mother's feelings,' and she praised the spiritual students. After that, the troops entered the army gave evidence of the family association from an early stage, and in the army, there was a miracle that 20 members of the training center listened to a lecture on principle within a few days. When sending the second generation to the army, they must participate in spiritual training sessions beforehand and prepare thoroughly. The army is a new place of assignment many will be evangelized. How easy is it to evangelize since we eat and sleep together 24/7 Even though he lived in the military, he stayed up all night devoted to his father and had a spiritual conversation with him when he was very tired.

Through the experience of deepening his faith, he lived through the military life without any control, and after being discharged from the military, he once again devoted himself as a spiritual trainee and engaged in conversation with his father. To my father who was asked to go to official office, he said, "If I go down the road of office, please bring me a woman suitable for me." Otherwise, I won't go down the road of public office." I prayed, and the next day I received an e-mail information about the bride's candidate. It's not just about offering supplications, it's a sincere posture of supplication before heaven. For those who can do the work, heaven visits and persuades them to go. Everyone of you need to become people who are persuaded by heaven to say, "Are you not capable of this? Go ahead." For that reason it is necessary to do all sincerity.

Chief Kim Jing-chun spoke only about the true mother's struggle on the cross. In order to fulfill the vision of the Kingdom of Heaven, your mother was prepared and educated with the Constitution of Heaven. This Constitution of Heaven is the hedge of protecting true parents and true home. We must become individuals, homes and churches through which heavenly laws can govern. The time has come. The root of life is not just a father but a father's love. Religion is completed by the religion of fathers. I don't know how important true paternal religion is. What a saving grace it is that I met the true mother in human history. There was evidence that a spirit who committed suicide entered the body by a student of the spiritual academy. A suicidal soul desperately searched for his mother in the midst of an excruciating spiritual experience of pain in which he died was trapped in cold water and couldn't even get out, while repeating the scene of his death over and over. When you shout "Omma" at the moment and your mother says "Omma is here. Always at your side. Come with me. "and reached out.

Through holding my mother's hand, I was finally released from the spirit after three days. Looking back, it was the dead spirit who screamed with Omma. Through shouting "Omma" you realize that your mother is your mother, and through holding your mother's hand, you experience that all your spiritual pains disappear, and after that you can live peacefully. The central spirit who committed suicide was able to meet his mother together with this trainee. Heaven is where you are with your mother. Real mothers in heaven are true mothers. Shusei is what happens when father's love and mother's love meet. I must cry out to Aboji Omoni so that the love of Aboji and the love of Omoni will come upon me and with that love I will be joined to true life with true love.

If you know the real truth of the spirit world, you have to pray and praise like a mad man. Tenshin Aishin Praise Group does not just sing along with the pitch, but praises like a mad person in resonance with the spirit world. Through this person, Koshin-sama and Koshin-yama plays the role, and when the spirit world is together, it must appear in a visible way. There was always such a spiritual atmosphere in the early days. Not formal prayers, we must pray loud prayers that will cause our lives. I have to happen to myself that my father lodged in and crushed myself. Your father's wish to return to the beginning of the year and move forward with the spirit and truth. If the heavens arise individuals, families, and leaders who can rule, there will be an explosion in the whole world. There are still many churches that cannot communicate with Heaven. If we become a family union that can truly feel the living Heavenly Parents, I am sure many people will gather in the future. I pray that this will be the time that I can meet Heavenly Father today.
