Believing in true parents requires not only faith but also ability to faith. If you live with your Creator Heavenly Parents in real life, you will have to live a completely new life. If you can prove that if you live by your Heavenly Parents in real life, you are able to manifest this kind of ability, it automatically becomes an era in which true Parents act.

It's now February and no matter how cold the winter cannot prevail in the spring so don't stay shrinky. The time of hope has come, if we think this is the time for us to use our power and do all our diligence, the spirit world will be mobilized and many righteous people will support and help us. Every single day passes, I see people writing and sending various things here and there, but when it's not centered on the parents, everything becomes a condition of judgment.

Today's reading of the reading is that your father said before he entered Danbury, "Do not grumble. Great miracles happen when you become fully united by giving thanks and giving thanks in your position. We must first thank God, then thank our husband, thank our wife, and thank our neighbor. The more you are grateful, the deeper love will be expressed, and the more you are thankful, the more the amount of God's love will increase. When I die I will leave a word of thanks and return to the Father and live forever in love. That's how much will you live up and give thanks to our Heavenly Father. That's the dream. God knows it too when you face misfortune. When faced with the most unfortunate situation in the world, Heavenly Father is forced to remember it. When you accept it with a grateful heart even on the spot, Heavenly Father sees you as a "Trustworthy". When you cross over, you will receive a blessing like no other in the world. There are principles like this. "

We are facing unfortunate situations now, but we are those who digest everything with gratitude, pray and devote ourselves to our mother. In the Bible, "the remnant," if we become absolutely believing in Heavenly Father, surprising blessings will draw near before us. Even in such a difficult and difficult time, how grateful I am to be able to pray and pray tonight. The more we gather, the more miracles happen. "Let prayer be like war." Forgive and love and be one. "It's time to realize what your mother said. It is our way to hope that Heaven will take charge of this earth through prayer. We need to build a church that will testify to your mother through fervent prayer, the righteous in the whole world will come to you like magnets. I hope this will be a time to appeal to the truth tonight.
