The 1495th Tianxin Garden is honest all night

Summary

For two days there was Seiwa of the Father, and he replaced the word by another. 2/4 the first day of spring is the day I give my testimony in court and as I prepare I heard from my father Seiwa early this morning. On the auspicious day of the first day of spring, many people gathered together and devoted themselves to their devotion, and it became a beautiful and sacred ceremony for the spiritual world. Being a poor family with six siblings, my father did many businesses to earn money. When I was a student in Seiwa, my father heard bad rumors about the church, and he was strongly opposed to it and even tried to take me home several times. But when I was in the army my mom got spiritual and walked around outside barefoot. As a result of this, the power of heaven appeared, and a curing role occurred to my mother, and in February 1976, a miracle role occurred that the whole family entered the teaching. Dad ascended to heaven for the first time in 50 years. Six sons and daughters have been blessed, grandchildren and great-grandchildren, total 59. Since my younger brother was serving the community in his hometown, many famous people in the region came and greeted him. Even in difficult situations, if the church will not be discouraged, and will deliver his word boldly, I am confident that the time will come when I will testify to my father and mother. With relatives and villagers, I think it's the first time I've seen a billionaire in the Haradon ceremony. It was a time of great grace by the parents and parents of heaven and earth.

The most important and big day of celebration in our life than the day we were born in our life, the day of our wedding is the day of Holy Communion. You must live a life of consecration so that you can reach the moment of holy peace, without disbelieving until the moment you die, holding your father's hand, without grudging or complaining, and without blaming anyone else. Give thanks in all circumstances, if you are frustrated, if you move forward with gratitude thinking that my ancestors will carry something wrong or the wrongs of the community and decline, then the authority of heaven will manifest on earth. It is important to live a life full of sincerity with this idea so that no matter what happens, protect your soul properly and prepare for your day to enter the heavenly world.

When things go wrong, the harder and harder breaking, the more prayers come out. Difficult circumstances itself are heavenly providence for prayer. In such times, we must pray with Tenshin-zai to allow the authority of the true father to be withered. My household also became a rumor by saying bad mouthing to the entire villagers that his mother was mentally insane because her son had a strange religion. When I was forced to grab my Heavenly Parents and pray, the authority of Heaven appeared to me and showed me what kind of Heavenly Parents are. In my hometown no one knew the evidence, now the church is established. I want you to be devoted to your devotion, believing that prayer will be Testament in Tenshin weekly : My son returned after 10 years away and depressed in filthy sin. In the meantime, how much of a mother devoted herself to praying for her name and writing a devotion book in Tenshin-no-seiji. With all sincerity. My son came back to his 40th and cried aloud when he heard the heavenly voice saying, "I need you." He testified his confession of faith, saying, "If I can keep your children alive, I will die tomorrow." "Though you are in your sin, you must return and hear your voice saying, "I need you, your prayer and your praise." If you become one with your mother's feelings and tears flow, your sins will be washed away and the spirit body will come to ease. Blessed are those who shed tears as one with their mother.

I hope you will support me, thinking that the way to keep the second generation alive is to send them to a long term training session. Through prolonged training, when you keep your word, you will become strong, and you will be able to overcome all the temptations of the world. It is possible with long training. Today, there are 127 students of the Spiritual Academy in Honjo, who are a community of love, a community of spirit, and a community of grace, united in love with each other. With these people as the base, Tenshin-sai Seishin fills the main quarters, and 40,000 thousand people in the whole world are devoted to their sincerity with one heart, I believe that the living Heavenly Parents will surprise them.
