True Mother's Words

Because of you, I gained strength, through whom Korea and America look forward to the world are the eyes of the typhoon... W/o fail with you all let us accomplish Heavenly Parent True Parents's Desire and the Kingdom of H on earth...

Heavenly Parent looking upon children of the fall, and the shaken environment, was so very regretful.

Heavenly Parent once more setting the condition by which they can become Blessed children, setting the desire to fulfill their position of Cheon Il Guk high settlement without shadows in order to bless that position for unification who can fulfill their responsibility in which Heavenly Parent Wishes to embrace 7.5 billion of humankind.

It is a matter that cannot be done by human power, you all must know how intensely Heaven has wished to love this humankind as children for 6,000 years.

I promised before Heaven that while I am on earth, I will make many of your people who loved Heavenly Parent.

If so, what must be done with Parents' circumstances and Heart. You all who understand it are the heroes desired by Heavenly Parent and True Parents in this era. Heros must overcome difficulties and agony. It is not accomplished in a comfortable position, the same as True Parents. You are all in different situations, before True Parents, all humankind are proud sons and daughters. TY applause

Because of you, I gain strength... (the 2nd gen cry extra for that)

Because of you, Japan, America and Korea move forward and you are the central eye of the typhoon. Without fail, by means of you all, let us accomplish Heavenly Parent's Dream and Heaven Realm on earth.

While staying awake through the night with single-minded devotion, I bow and offer deep respect and gratitude. And speaking of the Church Growth Award Ceremony and Cheon Il Guk Open Forum to gather the wisdom of GIG leaders.

Chunabee... Rewards Ceremony presenting a new standard, a health faith community and growth, one step further with witnessing, Blessing and offering indicators of the internal substance of the church that cannot be expressed by numbers alone

further from existing standard of Blessing, witnessing, worship service and offering which were quantitative growth indicators of the internal substance of the church

By examining young family ministry, financial transparency, networks, revitalization of the family, church and social value creation....

to direct it so that our church can settle down as Cheon Il Guk faith community breathing deeply with the local society.

Going through a total of 82 church throughout the world with strict examining, the rewards... the churches that actually completed quantitative goals in their respective position, The Goal Award to 34 churches, also 'The Encouragement Award' and the 'Most Noticed Community Acceptance Award' to 5 churches that excellently practiced the quality of growth.

District Director Sah ma oh tin lin hamed of Brazil, confessed:

'Sitting through devotion with heart is a natural duty. The moment the labor was officially recognized and commended, I gained comfort and strength to run again. This was testimony representing the heart of Heaven of all the members who ran for Heaven, without naming them, across the entire world'

applause to send our heart of comfort and gratitude

True Mother is holding onto the Epic during Her difficulty to awaken the chosen people to go the path they must go, without concession or compromise, and this meeting had more heart and soul of any other... We studied the heart and religiosity of the Han people, with listening intently with serious attitude of the tasks and paths we must go with...

testimonies about the Epic history more deeply understanding...

Open Forum was conducted like the name, gathering in one place to say their minds and open clues for going forward to flow with Mother's Direction and share the tasks faced and sustainable future.

Deep discussions and review, regulation, discussion of life and talents and public opinions and asking and answering.

Even with exhaustive schedule, continuing with Cheon Shim Won and holding hands and wailing like children longing with heart aching and knowing each other's unconditional dedication... mutual participation was fresh and effective despite arguments, an chance to experience we are family of heaven growing together, as one seeing hope, and how we will change the mindset of leaders, to open a new era, not just adhering to the old or we will not survive.

Under the supervision of the World Mission HQ, and one common will that the worldwide mission fields be emotionally and physically in line with True Mother, offering their fields... in a place of understanding and inheriting more deeply, leaders to open each other's heart and advance together responsibly, loving each other, becoming one before HPs, we must make this new effort and with cultural community... worldwide mission field, listening and taking root as substance within the lives of churches and members...

Key being this Cheon Shim Won devotion today.

'Grace of the True Mother'

Hello b and s, I am Moon Shin wol and I prepared this song for True Mother Who is giving unconditional grace with heart of gratitude

'Even trees that have grown through long and endless nights, can be shaken by the wind.

Yet because we have continued to believe with steadfast hearts, there is always a path of hope through every trial.

More than anyone, You walked a lonely path, True Mother's Course of Blood, Sweat and Tears.

Though I am an imperfect child, I will move forward, one with True Mother

The reason I could cross every winding hill and hardship, the reason I could stand here today, is because of Mother's devotion and sincere heart

I will remember True Mother's Love. I give thanks for every sacrifice You have made.

From now on, I will surely protect and support You. This I promise before Heaven.

When I pass through lonely times and rest in Mother's embrace, even the harshest moments of my life shine like the radiant sky.

More than anyone, You walked a lonely path, True Mother's Course of Blood, Sweat and Tears.

Though I am an imperfect child, I will move forward, one with True Mother

The reason I could cross every winding hill and hardship. The reason I could stand here today, is because of True Mother's devotion and sincere heart.

I will remember True Mother's Love. I give thanks for every sacrifice You have made.

From now on, I will surely protect and support You. This I promise before Heaven.

I will remember... "

From now on... "

This I promise before Heaven

Testimony...

story of how lacking a person I was before Heaven. I finally responded to Heaven's calling... graduated from Sun Moon University and am a minister in the field (This testimony was already given in previous transcript of weekday K Cheon Shim Won)

Honest heart was for saving face and pride, wanting to look like a fine person doing well without any problems, but tying up the knots of constant problems became difficult and watching the testimony of the youth at the Workshop, questioned if I could enter and members spoke favorably of me entering. It is not just something for me to do just because I want to, but if someone else wants me to go, I will go directly...

A church member contacted me asking to help write an application letter, and that became my sign and also the date of my birthday.

Sending the application, then at total of 3 people came. And the date of the Workshop was also my mother's birthday, and I felt it Heavenly Parent's Calling.

Regarding the vigil devotion I had many thoughts, but walking Mother's Path I realized pre-conditions must take place before the Cheon Shim Won, how much did I live for others and realize the reality of the SW. I possessed that all of this is gratitude rather than an added Workshop course. But it became too comfortable with a moderate degree of devotion. I thought, 'Is this really the best I can offer?' 'Is it okay to spend this time in such an ambiguous way?' 'How to become one with a heart boiled over and move Heaven?' How very, very much is True Mother waiting for that kind of us.

Starting by writing the Hyeongseong journal, tears flowed thinking of True Mother's suffering but not stopping there, not merely lamenting, but loving the surrounding people more and delivering the Truth of the Providence in our live.

By the consultation with the Workshop coordinator, I changed much. I thought I had felt a lot of Heavenly Parent's Love until now and that that was why I could walk the path of public ministry, but at a certain point I walked while enduring reluctantly. Even while knowing it, I was missing it, and while feeling it, I was turning away from it, not properly looking at that Love and Heavenly Parent always by my side walking with me, and the sorrow was so great that it would pour out even if someone touched me.

Tears remained on the floor, but I felt the invisible Love once again a visible love, when my mother traveled long hours back and forth to visit me and hugged me and said: 'It seemed I received too many gifts (tears) because Heavenly Parent called me to CP. What a happy person I am.' Knowing Heavenly Parent and True Parents and a family who accomplished that love, how great a love have I received while living as a person.

How important to live with cheongshim H heart. One thing to state: Heavenly Parent is alive and working.

It was merely that I was failing to align with that frequency, and from now I wish to align with Heavenly Parent's Love and True Parents's Heart and look at the single person before me through Heavenly Parent's Eyes of Joy, and along with my devotion, I will become a child that can say I practiced even one thing after You True Mother, when She returns to Cheonwon Gung.

Such a lacking person like myself could realize love once again is my gratitude, an to my parents and all leaders and members who supported me.

Shim Ul Zaki lecture

on 1,095th gathering

We have protected the members with separation of resentment spirits and continue the tour day after day and finally 1,095 th time overlapping True Mother's Tomb Devotion...

The appearance of the members was by no means dark after dissolution order. I am convinced that Heaven is preparing a new era as we lay ourselves down... Cheon Shim Won 8's directly are with us educating and directing to be Heaven's frequency as chosen Blessed people...

We pray True Mother's health and longevity and advancing completely one with HMH True Mother

6,500th Blessed couple of house built by father in law to be Buddhist propagation Place, and we cleared that to be the Altar hosting True Parents and our team learning the Korean language using it to practice praise, but now holding all services at our house and grilling and eating in the Place of harmonizing together

In April my father in law appeared, he who offered his whole life to (tegyo)(?) conducting faith life so diligently but grieved the death of his son, and that torment was directed toward me the daughter in law so times together were difficult, but later he received the Blessing because of his foundation of religious devotion, during the final prayer he sought out the members closest and said, 'What I wished to do was precisely this home church, and I envy the daughter in law, and I would be grateful for applause to support this family testimony... Every since I dedicated and witnessed 13 spiritual children, but I became trapped in the mindset that I was a perpetrator with the victimization and the thought that I would rather leave the church, but motivation for a new start was only this Workshop and tears overflowed and I experienced the deep love and comfort inside my body saying, 'Welcome, I have been waiting' and all was cleared up refreshingly, completely organized and I hope all members participate in the Workshop with gratitude to all staff preparing it.

While offering Cheon Shim Won devotion, we realize that receiving so much love but failing to feel it is the great sickness, and during the times of special vigil investment and devotion, Heavenly Parent will accomplish through regional tribal messiahship...

Pyun Chan Su MC of HJ Weekly Report

He bows to True Parents and audience half bow

Grateful to offer a report of hope...

Antoinette speaks of not a prayer chasing results but of the prayer already being answer and laying down the noise for a moment, let us feel the love together...

A Place where words are not only heard but felt, remembering how to be, to experience the heart of Heaven and feel our Parents Love...

Heavenly Parent, before anything is asked or changed something deeper is restored, not beginning from luck but from relationship, closing eyes for a moment, Heavenly Parent, True Parents, I am Your child. Let that settle. Transformation does not start with fixing your life but standing in the right place within it.

What changes in our body when we feel like the child, not the struggler. What becomes possible when we're already connected? "I thank You. I love You." not because everything is perfect, but because alignment begins with recognition. We are no longer looking at life from below, but from within relationship.

Thank you even before I understand everything. Feel how the suffering of resistance dissolves. What if gratitude is not the reaction, but the doorway. What shifts when I stop waiting to feel thankful and choose it first.

'Thy Kingdom (Heaven Realm) come, Thy Will be done one earth as it is in Heaven.'

This is where prayer changes. It is no longer asking, hoping, waiting. It becomes agreement. We are lining our inner world with the reality that already exists in Heaven.

Imagine, there is a reality already complete, whole, harmonious, abundant. What do I feel like if I am already living in that reality? Not pretending, not forcing, just tuning in.

This is the quiet revolution. Most people pray, 'I don't have. Please give.' What is invited? 'I am aligned with Heavenly Parent; therefore, it flows. We are not chasing outcomes, we are inheriting the reality that carries them.

Instead of, 'Help me be strong.' 'I stand as someone already helped, already guided.' Feel the difference.

Pray as if it is already answered, not tomorrow, not some day, but now, internally. this is not an illusion. It is an alignment with the deeper reality, and the outward world follows the inner postures.

If nothing outside changed today, but everything inside aligned, would that already be a kind of miracle?

Heavenly Parent, thank You. I love You. I stand with You. I align with Your Will. I refund what is already (more than) given. Therefore, with every breath, thank You.

Next, a youth came to meet his precious wife and receive grace and Blessing, after last week seeing a single scene from CS Weekly and being shaken. Exactly what kind of devotional work was hidden behind this fateful encounter?

'One day in order to offer Cheon Shim Won devotion, to prepare, then I saw the appearance of a woman playing the flute sideways like this video

'I walk the path alone. This Heart cannot be explained.'

I felt, 'Oh, that woman is alright. She plays well. She is a good woman. And then the moment she looked forward and did an interview, that became an immense resonance with me shaking my head and my entire body resonantly to the extent that the entire earth was shaking.

She prays in tears, 'Heavenly Parent, HM, at this time when I must become one with You most, I am still facing my own tasks, and I am failing to pray earnestly for Your sake. Public prayers are also difficult, and because I am still busy looking after myself, I am truly sorry.

At the prayer gathering, I will offer earnest prayers to You, cry out for True Mother and True Father with heart for You, Heavenly Parent, and chase after Your Back, so please work so that by all means I can certainly cross over the wall inside me and become one with You, so that I can become a child who can pray for You with all my original mind and sincerity.

I will certainly run to You, so Heavenly Parent and True Parents please wait for me.

He says: At that time, I thought an earthquake broke out in Korea. To that extent, I could not control myself to that degree, and as soon as this interview of my wife began inside my head, the thought, 'Oh, that woman accurately resembles True Mother' rose up, and the revelation continually stating that she is that eternal counterpart you are looking for. It continued to shake me even after the Cheon Shim Won vigil ended.

I was flustered by many things, and usually at the end I had to shout 'Oeg Monsei' and normally I would, but then it became excessively clumsy. And then a member of my Pyungchung Church and pastor's wife, who is the former family dept director, saw my appearance and told me to speak my worries regarding a counterpart.

Through that I was able to find the profile regarding my wife and composed a letter sent to her loving parents stating that I wished to meet and see their daughter and to please allow it. In this way, despite difficulties, Heaven worked and my wife and I were able to meet safely, and being Blessed on the Day when True Mother opened the Gates at the Entrance Ceremony, even now, I am always offering deepest gratitude to Heavenly Parent and True Parents, OBD, HMM, True Mother.

'Michika, I know there is a clear reason that HMM bestowed a benediction on us and invited us to the sacred Place where the Gate of Heaven opens wide, and no matter what difficulties Michika might have, I will always help and look after you by your side. So, please do not worry. Although I am lacking, we as a couple have a great mission that we have to accomplish for Heavenly Parent and True Parents's Will, so even I am a lacking husband, please take care of me...

Hyojin Jon draws the attention of members testimony of youth who dreamed to develop their own architecture of Providence..

Mother: 'There's such a good Place as this'

Mother named it Hyojin Jon

Let us gather devotion with a heart earnestly wishing for Mother to come to Hyojin Jon again, a Place like ruins... but now born anew...

Satito Mai completed this model of Hyojin Jon in the midst of short-term service there... and she thought it is the best present to give True Mother... wanting Mother to rejoice even a bit

I thought it was accomplishable for me, but losing the dream, I lost my reason for living as well, majoring in architecture, and every day's assignment was difficult and no rest and after vigil ended, there was not time to think of F and M, but watching everyone praising with all their bodies and minds, and I was envious but also a resentful mind, thinking I am not the person who loves F and M the most, and my mind wanted to stop everything and thinking it is okay if I die.

I came to hear the news of Mother's confinement, and I was truly committing unfilial piety and my heart of sorrow did not stop, but I was continuing to ask such questions, 'Is it okay if I die?' Thinking that I wanted to repent for my past and dedicate for True Mother, and with that heart I spent time without being able to focus at all, but still faced the assignments diligently, then during the breaks of the devotion, the schedule was pushed back for a week. Then when the school ended, the schedule coincided, so I thought True Father is calling me to the Yeongseong Workshop to offer devotion for True Mother, and this time I felt great joy, and yesterday was so sad for Heavenly Parent and True Parents shedding tears for 6,000 years, and now the appearance of Mother, then the tears of gratitude and joy that I almost lept up, and I felt the time is coming when I can give devotion with my entire body and mind for True Mother...

'A Word that refers to the heart of a parent who has lost their child does not exist.

Author Moon Hyo Won overcame such sadness and offered this for healing the hearts of many people... In the philosophy department I drew pictures of Adam and Eve every day. How could it be that a man and woman could not love each other and the history of humankind existed as it was...

I wanted to be saved and I thought the Will would be finished with the Blessing and children who served Heavenly Parent and True Parents, and while raising the babies, I was so happy, and my husband went out for long hours delivering the papers. But I went with my husband one day and a fire broke out, and I lost all 4 of my children.

But True Father said that they were attending with their mother/parents and they went by way of an offering, so not to worry, and they will go the way of a vanguard for diminishing the works of Satan. It is a relief that you the couple remain, and live diligently so as not to lose your lives to them.' Father said like this, and those Words are my greatest strength and salvation for even finding the way to live at all.

'True Father, save me. I must live well and diligently so that the children's becoming an offering can be properly recognized as an offering.

And I want to say a word of proper greeting and thanks to many members who truly helped me a lot... to each and every one who offered devotions (and also donations), even though their own lives were difficult.

For what reason is all this difficulty that kept happening. (hard to even think of) Even so, because my personality is on the brighter side, I think that is why I am still living. Since True Parents also sent 4 children away, I wonder how was it? nothing more sorrowful, turning in the death certificates with my own hands...

My child who became a star in Heaven... I would see the final appearance at the funeral home, but that appearance will disable me from going on, but who comforted me. They said the babies were unexpectedly clean. I tried hard not to collapse. A neighborhood woman held me and cried loudly. That place had frequent fires, where planes passed overhead. I looked toward my house upon returning that day, and my heart sank. My grandfather held me back and a firefighter that I could not move. I begged him to go in with me. At the grave there was only a pile of brown dirt piled on top and a great pain I had never imagined to know before...

The day of Trihon born was the greatest of my life... Mom misses you so much... you and your younger siblings without being able to embrace even once, made my heart so painful and sad. I know you will be busy in the SW too, and go quickly to meet God, take care of your younger siblings and TY truly for being born as my son. Mom, was so happy because of you and I am happy still and I will be even more happy in the future. Trion, good bye. I'll see you later.

My faith was so restored during the Cheon Shim Won vigil, and with inspiration from PL's testimony and HJ Testimonies, it became my hope and grace, realizing the impossible becoming possible. I was so grateful to return to FF and become one with True Mother, experiencing Hyojon won... I realized it is truly the 4PF for the first time in history, his music and heart striking deeply, and precisely this person who attends True Parents couple create the greatest things in this world.

I started paintings and writing to leave it behind... I wrote the book, 'The Four Stars in the Sky of Osari' and I published 300 copies and my love for Korea also is in this book.

When thinking how to advertise this, a news reporter said they saw the painting and the book and want to interview me. And because of the pure waters who now go forward...

This heart aching confession contains insight of the book Tongyongi, Pyong won i... T he heart of HJ to comfort Heavenly Parent and True Parents truly resembles True Mother...

Pres. Lee Gi-seong's Message

Our Mother.. It's the 250th day... Our Mother like the shining star, even in the darkness, She is radiating a Light allowing lost children to find their path and embedding strength to our heart to move forward courageously... Although our light might falter that Light will always be there... Let us pursue our course as if at war...

Because our members are stationed at the DC, True Mother was able to have one more month staying in the hospital and we must gather our hearts so that She can be liberated fully...

True Mother's Words today... We miss True Mother so much that we held the session with only True Mother's Voice and Words... Those who understand True Mother's Heart and shed tears, with longing and eyes of the typhoon, not just yes answer in front of Her and realizing Her Words. To do that you must offer Cheon Shim Won devotions and get the cooperation of the SW.

The precious daughter came from Barkley, world-class university and showed her singing skills and I hope she moves the entire world with her voice and becomes the center of the Movement... applause grateful for the reports and testimonies... If someone registers, I will also go and it happened and the birthdays were the same, with the greatest presents from the TC... with the frequency aligned

True Mother is watching and effected by everything...

We are showing what an amazing community we are... True Father said He wants to return to Cheonsung Gung with True Mother True Father's Message - You must experience the SW and receive True Father's Teaching personally. When you research one major way to push forward, the SW will come and True Father will come and teach you more than you or this world knows, and that is the great advantage of the Unification Church, as long as you have the spiritual background, you will be so blessed, even setting the background is difficult.

True Mother: You must make these videos and I will take them and educate the members around the world. I could feel Heaven working looking at this scene, and Heavenly Parent and Heaven's Blessing has come down to us. Great revolution will take place and you must be at the forefront to create that wind.

How important this mission is, and such movement is required to set that wind, a drop creating the river to the ocean... That wind is Cheon Shim Won devotion for explosive work of Heaven to occur.

Understand how important, SW selecting who is doing well, who is doing the utmost, and SW is in competition for who is doing their best.

In our church we used to announce the numbers of who is best. Heavenly Parent checks the numbers too. SW is selecting and choosing. Those not offering devotion, think that person is doing it so I don't need to, but instead have the competition for receiving the more education and doing the most devotion and result...

We did not stop 40-day Workshop and the other WSs, such varieties now prepared for you, and youth Workshop in summer vacation without even enough places to sleep and then we would have to have a tent or build something more. We must show this growth that we are doing well. And secular world people will testify about us... Mother said to have this variety... Today, Cheonyuljon Fishing Workshop... all because True Father is giving us revelation. Young people must come like a wave. More long and short-term WSs...

True Father, whenever He did something big, He offered devotion through fishing.... And our brother Cho Man U will lead this fishing... Yang Chang Shik resolved to come and attend devotion... Yeong Song Academy going abroad is also a type of Workshop... and our German sister. I feel that she can hold her own Workshop. She received so much enlightenment.

This Content must be written down and organized... At Gapyeong County, we will find the Places where True Parents left the warmth and we will tour Korea as a Pilgrim Place to walk the Places True Parents have walked. And they will be wailing with the Spirit of True Parents, and the path will open to see new hope and future. So those who know the SW and the Living Heavenly Parent, the more the trial comes the more you can welcome history to record it and look at you moving forward praising.

While walking the floor with needles, he prayed 'Look at this' and record and that is why True Parents came to this nation Gen I Gon Shi... and because Korea has such spirit True Parents came from this nation and They need to be received and glorified and the cross taken by us to move forward... Once you resolve to receive the cross, setting the right frequency in this time, I hope you do in this time

... we confess that our faults, our sins are great, we earnestly want to become the righteous families and the truth of Heaven proclaimed every single day, please allow us to be the proud Blessed families every day of Cheon Shim Won, grateful for the Blessing we received... desiring to live we will die, but desiring to die we shall live, one with Cheon Shim Won. Let us be such children. The ones like this sister who sent 4 children to SW, please comfort and guide their hearts... They will stay in the happiness and embrace of Heaven and please restore the happiness to this family.

Let us realize this is the GA of the Providence and we know Heaven is moving with True Mother and let us also move with True Mother in all things...

The June is about to come and the Cheon Shim Won devotion let us accumulate it every day and please help us so that our sons and daughters may be established before You, Heavenly Parent.

At this moment of tearful devotion of members, please listen and we with those of earnest devotion, please accept. Do not let us be discouraged but to drive out all negative resentment spirits in our body. Please have mercy upon this nation and people. Let the arrogant people step back.

Let us become one with Inheritors to open the substantial settlement of the Cheon Shim Won Era.
