We truly believe that this time when Heaven is with us and True Father is with us and the SW Works for our advance through Spirit and Truth, this Place that Testifies to the Living Heaven in a time to offer praise with a heart of hyojeong, and gather our devotion.

In this critical situation, with the 1st trial ruling for Mother is close at Even though we are so lacking, we will face this time of vigil devotion with all of our strength and all of our devotion.

Gracious Heavenly Parent, here in the Main Palace, in the Main Branch, members of the Unification Family from all over the world have gathered here with a united heart. Senior members who attended True Parents are together in this Place. Public officials worldwide are advancing with life-or-death determination.

Forty thousand members, and Mother's pure waters have connected to the Main Place, gathering all devotion. True Parents of HEH, how could Heaven not Dwell in this Place? TESTIMONY

(She slowly bows to True Parents and to the audience)

Hello. I am the eldest daughter... The reason I came to the Workshop was, being 20 years old this year, was that as an adult, I wanted to have a faith to own personally.

I realized two things: the power of prayer offered earnestly and the power of Cheon Shim Won devotion

Until now, when I was told to pray, I didn't know what to pray except for to ask Heavenly Parent's help when there were problems. Living together with many people and the hot weather, I felt stressed over many things and feelings of guilt, not grateful and good feeling I 'should' have.

Then I prayed to Heavenly Parent, 'What on earth should I do?' I think that was the first prayer not just to look good or not want an answer. I realized that first acknowledging that such fallen feelings are there, then we can become one... instead of hating myself, 'Why am I Like this?' I thought, 'How must Heavenly Parent Feel seeing me like this?' and concerning about others around me, not just comparing with judgments.

This first time to experience Heavenly Parent's Heart and my perspective of Cheon Shim Won devotion changed, since 2023 when the shouting out was scary for me to understand. Going back to Japan and seeing such earnest devotion and my grandfather and grandmother continuing to offer devotions at home after the dissolution, and going up to the stage of the Main Vigil... I thought the Japanese members are gaining strength like this, and wanting to make my family elders happy, so I joined the praise team.

Even feeling lacking then compared to other, but thinking of every choir member and seeking alone for giving even a little more grace. It was simply about doing our best and wanting Heavenly Parent and True Parents to be happy, not just think of whether I was doing well or not, and struggling with feelings of envy, jealousy. Whenever I was tired, people would suggest that we go to the Tree of Blessing and offer devotion.

As time passes, what will remain is not how hard it is, but how I change during the time, laying out my bare self before Heavenly Parent. And Heavenly Parent not being Someone Who waits for me to be perfect, but to muster up more efforts in every situation. Now going back to a very busy life, but not wanting to leave the time being here just as a memory so I resolve to honestly lay myself before Heaven in everything and take a step further, and for the loved ones around me to do more what I can.

Grateful for the members and church and family, all the trainees and Heavenly Parent and True Parents for guiding me and not forgetting that it was not I who sought out Heavenly Parent but Heavenly Parent who sought me out first. big applause

I Guy Yong singing (famous)

'I sing for my Japanese mother'

Loved my father so much, followed him to Korea and we live together like best friends.

She studied and taught me Korean and read to me a Korean book... I slept next to my mother, but one day she held my hand and said Guy Yong, I have to go to the hospital and you will have to stay separate for me for a long time. (tears)

I was 6th grade and I didn't even know what cancer was and I wanted her by my side and eat meals prepared by her and joke with her and those every-day activities, I missed that so much (Her mother also there with tears... and the judges so moved to hear her)

Half a year passed, and it was my graduation of elementary school. My father, my aunt and my grandmother, but my mother was not there. I was so sad, 'What is cancer? Is it more important than a daughter?' So, I resented and grew bitter to my mother. But later I figured out through chemo therapy, anti-cancer therapy, she lost all of her hair. She lost weight. And she felt pain when she breathed.

And the doctors said she might die, so to prepare our hearts. And when I went to see my mother, then I would call and sing to her, and my mother hearing my song, she said she was strengthened and received the treatment, and my mother even returning home had so much pain and would lie down for long periods of time. And when she would lie down, I would hold my mother's hand and sing to her, and then she would embrace me tightly.

My mother when she hears my singing, even she was in pain, she would smile and say that my singing was a special medicine that cannot be found anywhere else. I have one wish, even I do not succeed as a singer, I want to be a singer for my mother. Mother, please hear my song and give her strength.

... (sister) I also went through a very difficult conflict with a sister in the 2nd gen share house, who disliked me from the start. She secretly photographed part of my diary about internal struggles with my husband, giving them to my family, friends, church members, even my husband, calling it 'exposing my evil in accordance with the Principle'

These were struggles I'd never expressed outwardly, deeply personal matters between God and me. I became deeply confused about church, Blessing, faith and even between good and evil, until I stopped wanting to think about any of it.

I participated in the Japanese Workshop, thinking my life had no value and wanting to die at times. I felt there was no reason to be here except for doing something for Mother, so I tried with everyone else. After completing 1,000 bows and 1,000 call to prayer, a coordinator said, 'I feel hope' and that moved me to try to live like someone who can live proudly and honestly.

I began entering a level of jeongseong 400 bows, 40 minutes of HD, everything focused only on my relationship with Heaven (tears) That became the most spiritually intense time when I cried the most, but sometimes seeing images of evil spirits, those who opposed True Mother. It felt like moving constantly between Heaven and hell.

I need comfort from my parents, believing that I had to first restore vertically, setting aside other relation with trainees... But they didn't respond to me and I asked myself how that could be. I decided to leave the Workshop early. I went and tried to sleep, but a butterfly kept landing on my nose over and over until I opened my eyes, and I felt it was Heavenly Parent telling me not to give up and I felt deeply comforted.

Later, I talked to a coordinator and why my parents did not reply. He said everyone expresses love differently. And when I let go of the last hurt little by little, I remembered times when they loved me.

Then, the coordinator said something that touched me deeply, 'True Mother's Wish is just for you to be happy.' That showed me that I had not let myself be happy believing that She carried such a heavy burden that I had no right to my own happiness, and realizing She wanted me to be happy, I felt a tremendous weight lifting.

I also realized that, no matter how much I try to pray for Heavenly Parent and Providence, I'm still like a little child that wants to receive love. Instead of judging that, I decided to embrace it, and cried out to Heavenly Parent like a child. Instead of trying to sound mature, I simply became honest before Heaven, and for the first time feeling accepted exactly as I am.

The day of the third devotion was the perfect opportunity in praying for three people, I realized that True Mother's greatest Desire is for us to share the love we received. At the same time, I still struggle to receive love myself, not one who lives for the sake of others, which is painful to admit... thought I treasure my brothers and sisters, I never build many horizontal relationships here. I never reached the point of truly seeing True Mother as my own Mother.

Because of that I want to become a missionary training myself to be a representative of True Mother. (tears) Perhaps I first needed to establish my vertical relationship with Heaven, but now I want to practice loving the people around me, carrying their pain as my own.

I'm anxious about returning to Japan since we don't have a church there any longer, but I want to live wherever I am for Heavenly Parent and True Parents. I want to thank Heavenly Parent and True Parents for guiding me, my husband and b and s around me... With this I like to conclude my testimony (turning to cough on tears... taking water)

HJ REPORT

Title: forgive, love, united True Mother: More than 90% of diseases people have are related to ancestral sins...

testimony... diarrhea and extended stomach and found I had a cist and they couldn't say before surgery whether it was malignant...

When I came to Cheon Shim Won to pray, Father asked me strongly, 'Can you lay your life down and live for True Mother' Can you live for Mother?' I thought of my children then, 'If you die, what will happen to my children?' and I couldn't answer right away saying, 'Please wait for a moment' It was such a shock. I had always thought I could lay my life down for the sake of True Mother.

Then during the one-heart prayer from a pastor that afternoon, I received so much love, and I thought how could I not die for True Mother of so much Love for such as me. I deeply regretted not being able to say 'Yes!' right away.

Father again said strongly, 'Now, answer right away.' and I said, 'TY Father, TY, if You spare my life, I will surely walk the path of the Will with my life on the line from now on.' A week later, by chance, I had a consultation with the Director Kim Myung Wok and she told me to come the Center immediately and receive special ansu every day while attending the Workshop. And laying everything down, I entered the TC the following night.

They offered special ansu with truly earnest care. The first day, my sleep apnea disappeared with the pain like menstrual cramps also vanishing, and the diarrhea soon after. I had confidence for going back to the doctor that everything had been resolved. In the middle, I attended and 3-day Workshop, but because I prayed so intensely, my voice was hoarse. Worried that a fever might prevent me from having surgery, I went to the hospital.

They said with this condition of my hoarse throat, they could not administer anaesthesia for the surgery and that it would be dangerous. (Even I had not caught a cold, but was only hoarse) The emphasized that the moment I opened my eyes I must breathe. When they started the surgery and I opened my eyes, the words came out of my mouth, 'True Mother Hong Song Gang' and I wondered if I should be doing calling out prayers, and I shouted, 'True Mother's Health and Longevity, True Mother's Release.' And I shouted out with my heart.

Even after surgery, I couldn't breathe well, and when I thought, 'It's too hard to breathe. It's too hard.' Then I felt the presence of medical angels. There were angels like doctors. And I heard discussions whether to do it like this, or that way and treating me, And, 'Ah, this will work. Let us do it this way. Let us do it like that.' Then, when they touched my shoulders, at a certain moment, 'Whoosh' My breathing cleared. And I heard them say, 'Ah, it's working now. Breathing is restored. Okay. Okay.'

The cyst had been 6 cm and the dark hardened tissue around it meant it turned into a what could not be dealt with? but with seeing from the surgery, it was 2 cm with no hardened mass around it. It was soft.

I heard many testimonies and never thought it would happen to me. But by doing praise and Cheon Shim Won devotion and HJ Offering Papers, I was healed. And I will live passionately for Heavenly Parent and True Parents.

Before surgery, I tell people to receive ansu. She is here with us tonight, so please give applause another... trouble having a baby, but after ansu and 2 resentment spirits liberations, she received a third baby in June... after three years of not being able to get pregnant... applause

Japanese member's testimony of arithmea problem I thought came from the relation with my mother. After counseling, I felt a central spirit involved... After arriving my right shoulder had increased pain and immobility... Ansu made me find in 3 days as if nothing ever happened, this accomplished through Mother Love through members, and now I am embracing that love with gratitude.

How many families have difficult relationship. If you cannot love your own mother, then you cannot love True Mother. How can you say it otherwise. Many receive healing with a repentful heart, and everyone, we must forgive one another, love our family and neighbors and become one under the flage of peace. We should rethink how we should love and forgive and unite (True Mother's Words) I hope you can rethink this again.

True Father's Word 1990... Now even if True Father is alone, He represents True Parents and even if Mother is alone, She represents True Parents. Therefore, Father is the First Leader and Mother is the Second Leader. Until now, women followed men. But now they are horizontal (equal)

Because fell, women had to go over many hills. And the Japanese Samurai mindset truly gave women a difficult time. If you go to Europe or the Western world, women are respected, but in Korea and Japan there is not so much respect for women. But in 1990, True Father opened the Age of Male/Female Equality. That is when we feel that the voice of women was risen.

So, from late 1060s to 70s and 80s, our elder members, when they call their wives they just cough 3 times, and then the wife would come and say to the husband, 'Do you need anything?' And then the husband would say, 'Give me some water. Give me some food.' And the wife would do as they say. So, to our wives, let us offer them a great round of applause.

But nowadays, our young members, because the voices of women are so loud, men find themselves in the kitchen and doing dishes and laundry. My son received the Blessing early, and I would see who is washing the dishes. And he said to stay out, and he was doing the dishes all on his own. And I thought why can't we just do it together? And I asked, 'Why can't you ask your wife to do it? And he said, 'Our family is eating dinner, and why would I ask my wife to do the dishes for our family?

So, males are doing chores these days, but in this age of equality, we should have mutual respect between men and women, husbands and wives.... testimony

'I'm truly sorry for woounding your heart with harsh words and please forgive the past and move forward... and the wife said, 'If something like this happens again, is it okay if I don't cook meals for you?' and the husband says, 'Yes, I promise you that, yes.' 'I will also make an effort to work hard. I will strive so that we can go to Heaven together. Thank you for your continued support.' (And he hugs her and pats her back)

With counseling and looking back, I see I need to change those times when I spoke so harshly to my wife, make an efforts to show the appearance of love to our children as well and press forward once again toward completion. I made such resolution. I am truly grateful that I was able to receive this consultation. TYSM.

And the wife: 'I thought that I wanted me and my husband to get along really well as a couple and have aheart of forgiving one another, and make a new start from now on. I learned from the Center Director that we must live in greater harmony together. TYSM '

First the wife came and said the difficulty, and I asked, 'Where is your husband?' They were receiving the Workshop together, and I said, 'You should come together with your husband.' And they had 7 children and offered one. And the wife didn't even want to look at the husband. And I said, 'Try having gratitude.' And the husband said, 'Oh, TYSM for raising the 6 children'... Then they could start making eye contact little by little. And they made promises with consequence if they did not live up to their promise, like chasing the other out of the house or not cooking a meal for the other.

So, if you could not forgive then you cannot unite. In Japanese culture, it is hard to forgive, and relationships go unresolved. I explained the way of forgiving: Two conversation methods, the 'You' blaming method, fault put to the other person and attacking verbally. But with the 'I' message, you simply explain your own feeling without blaming the other person, saying, 'I see.' Not saying, 'What time is it? You came so late.' but if you say, 'You came late. Are you okay?' Then the other might say, 'Oh, I'm sorry. I was so busy that I couldn't really call you.'

VIDEO EXAMPLE:

Did it help in your couple's life?

Yes, it did. There were many times when we just had one-word question and one-word answered conversations. 'Why did you buy bean sprouts? We already have them.'

'I didn't know.'

'Oh, we already have bean sprouts and I didn't know. I see.'

but because I asked, 'Why am I scolded for such trivial things?'

and she said to repeat what your husband said, without any resentment... but if I would say that, my husband, would say, 'Yeah, you did that yesterday too' and then there's more weight on my shoulders.

If you say, 'Ah, I see.' then that truly changes everything.

Then he doesn't dig deeper into scolding.

'Yeah, that's right.' So I found the miracle of this, 'Ah, I see.' ku rik na

(again some streaming violation and part is blotted out)

testimony... I could realize how many sins my ancestors committed, and with liberations, I could feel the strength return to my body...

special ansu, prayer, Hoon Dok Hae, special service volunteering, prayer and donations and chanyang... and many would ask why there were not changes with others, but first you need to change yourself. To live lives with us changing first our character, then people will start to respect and admire our families and our Church. So, for this we must go forward risking our lives and go forward with pride. So, many missionaries I truly cheer you on to live like this and with pride.

True Father said that all of Owen will be restored and the Central Director would come, and I offered devotion for 40 days for the victorious revival ceremony, and one said they made a mistake and came more healings... one for calling out for 2 Peace Ambassadors... and there was a suggestion to bring Branch Member's mother, and I made determination to attend her... Pres. Kim Song Nim's mother, and I wanted to understand the heart she had for her son. She would come down the stairs one step at a time, cutting with each step, but now she can come down well... She would say she doesn't understand why he can't come to see me. He would say it was a 3-hour drive.. too long... so let us support them to visit...

another... my heart grew heavy and a dark situation with many things of the church and Mother's situation... I could feel Mother say, 'It's okay, I am with you' during the counseling and revival meeting. I could continue my relationship and this time I could find the money to liberate my ancestor's 430 gen, and I realized Heavenly Parent would not not up and would open a way...

I had a volunteer corps go to people's houses and clean. I have people come to me and want a divorce because the house is so dirty. I would encourage them to restore their husband, cook him something nice, and if you are not good at cooking, go to the store and buy the good meal as if you had cooked it, so that the husband's can feel love and come to the church because they are touched another... trouble to be pregnant even in her early 40s wanting 3 children... went for hormone treatments and in the CY I would intensively do ansu to my womb and imagine it shining with evil spirits leaving one by one... I applied for a special ansu, and two years after the ansu, I can conceive again...

Sometimes, I ask if they can liberate through the ansu? and there is quiet. not a lot of awareness and belief in it. The ten minutes of Chanyang is free, so you can do it as never happened free before. Sometimes I think we should put a price on it. And one of our pastors cured an incurable spine disease through CY yoksa... (bring the free results to multiply every way)

Through CY people can see themselves as not before and repent and feel the joy of hope from realizing True Parents and us to rise again to our fullest well-being.

The greatest gift before you is the authority of the Heavenly tribal messiah. True Parents made the Proclamation of God's Eternal Blessing on July 1st 1991, and named it the Day of Cheonil Chol, the Day of restoring Adam's Birthright lost at the fall. and we enter the original world where the angel was meant to nurture Adam until he matured.

He Revealed that the SW and PW are completely restored to the Path of endwasy? ushering in the Era of Victory in True Parents's Word. They Proclaimed the Era of Eternal Blessing Centering on True Love, not only the Democratic and Communist world but also to the religious world.

What was most agonizing to True Father was that He was unable to Teach this Principle to His Parents,

His brothers and sisters and make them shed tears. This is True Father's 'han'. Nevertheless, you must witness to your own mother, father, sister and brother. If you fail to witness to them, they will inevitably go to hell and ruin. We must pull them out to the Place where they can live.

Whether with a robe or a cloth or your own arms and legs, you have the responsibility to tie them in this way and pull them out of hell. Parents have given you the greatest gift in offering the Authority of the Tribal Messiah.

Centering on the victorious Blessing Foundation for which Jesus Came as the Messiah after 4,000 years, and upon the standard where all environmental conditions that the nation of Israel and Rome could oppose have been resolved. When the Parents have become welcome in a free environment where They can spread to the world, there is no persecution wherever your clan goes.

It is the tribal messiah that has been bestowed upon you as a privileged gift, the path on which you can rush toward such a global stage. Today is the day that the Son has reached the 77th year, on July 7, 1997, at 7 o'clock, 7 minutes and 7 seconds AM, focusing on surpassing the #7 8 times, so that we can surpass the #7 and 8 and connect the # of the year of rest with a new departure.

All multitudes of BF's centering on the families who have inherited the Authority of Heaven and the Tradition of Love attending and centering on the family, giving rest and centering on the Heaven on the nation, and centering on the Heaven on the world, and centering on the Heaven centering on the cosmos, resting foundation on the families and the cosmos on which Heavenly Parent and True Parents can freely travel

'As We Become One with True Mother'

2nd original composition completed over 5 months with weekly practices, even the difficulties of losing their church.

Recalling the early days pioneering in Pusan, True Father shared:

In the days when there wasn't even a church, even when I returned to the shack, after finishing a days' course, there was nothing. Singing was the only thing I could do to comfort God. How can we comfort True Mother Who is now in the DC where She has nothing?

True Father taught us that, even if we lose everything, we must never let the fire of praise be extinguished. That was the starting point of creating this song. Looking at the lyrics, it begins as:

Anohsuh Hill where our church was located, sequentially introduces the wind shizika yogani and the Sea of Iseh. All these places are Homelands Created by HPs. In addition, the lyrics: 'Rise up, overcoming the darkness' lights a lamp in the valley of tears and 'Heavenly Parent is with us' contain a message of hope and courage much needed in this era.

Finally, we conclude the song with our determination and pledge, 'We will become the pure waters that True Mother Desires... The Heavenly Cranes...
