“I felt [Dr. Hak Ja Han Moon’s] vivid imagery narrating her experience as if I was there living it. Through her words, I could deeply feel her heart.”

“I learned to connect more deeply to the feminine heart of God and how it is reflected in me.”

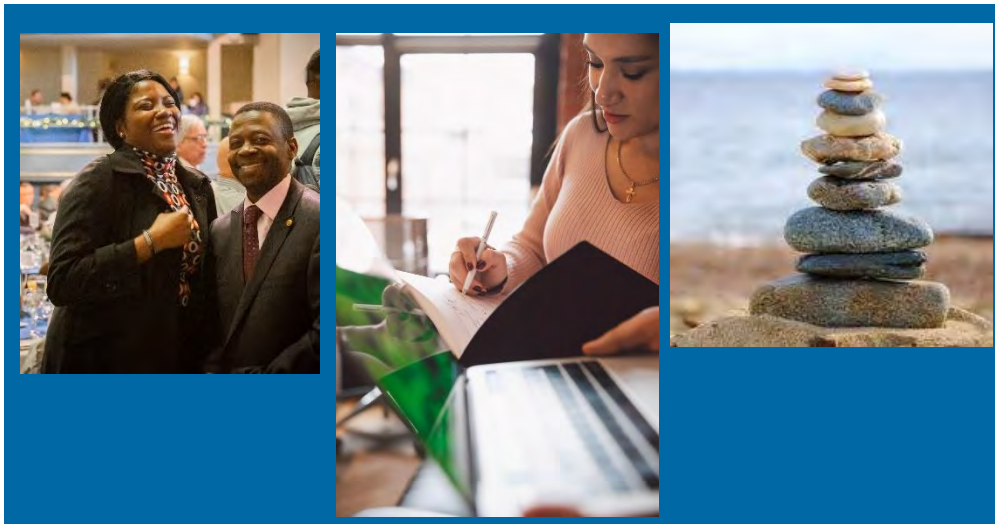

“My energy, power and identity as a woman is larger than I thought before, and my impact can be so much greater.”

“The best part was... meeting and chatting with women all over the globe.”

“I look forward to less judgment towards my husband. Seeking to be more of a vessel of feminine love to him. To embrace how he is different from me, and seek to appreciate... those differences...”

“I still have lots of growing to do to become Wholehearted, but I have this course to look back on with tools, inspiration, and understanding to help me on that path.”

Women across the nation are learning to embrace their authentic selves and explore the depths of what it means to be a woman. Your gift today will keep this program going in 2024 and give the world a missing piece in peacebuilding: women living Wholeheartedly!
