HJ International Graduate School for Peace and Public Leadership is happy to announce its third annual Research Day to take place on May 14, 2023. This important event seeks to encourage students, faculty, and alumni to undertake research projects in an area of their interest, and to highlight important research activities already being conducted.

Students, faculty and alumni are invited to present an Academic Poster as a visual depiction of a research project already completed or presently underway.

- Submissions are due in Canvas no later than Sunday, May 5, 2024 at 11:59 PM.

Submissions will be reviewed by a panel of judges and may be submitted in one of two competitive categories: 1. Faculty Research or 2. Student Research. $500 USD will be awarded to the winner in each of these two categories of the competition.

There is a third non-competitive category for HJI alumni and others affiliated with HJI. The winner will be awarded a Certificate of Excellence from the HJI's Alpha Nu Pi Chapter of Theta Alpha Kappa, the National Religious Studies Honor Society, an affiliate of the American Academy of Religion.

The following are eligible to register in the two competitive categories:

- HJI students enrolled in the Fall 2023 and/or Spring 2024 semester
- HJI full-time faculty members or adjunct faculty members who have taught a HJI course between Fall 2020 and Spring 2024
