I want to express my gratitude to True Mother for designating Rev. Yang as our senior pastor. Since Rev. Yang came to our family church, the spiritual course of our church changed.

One remarkable aspect I want to point out is the dedication and commitment he has for this position. With the support and leadership of Rev. Yang, we now have our own church building to call home. So on behalf of everyone in this church and myself, I want to thank True Mother and Rev. Yang; when I see him and his family, I see the representation of True Parents.

Hi, my name is S. Tsuchida, and I'm 17 and just beginning my first year in college. Reverend Yang became our regional pastor recently, but even in this short time, I feel like he has really become involved in the community and I most definitely look up to him. He really stands out to me as a man of integrity. I remember, when he first came to the LA family community, he began his ministry by asking to come to every community member's home to visit the family and introduce himself over dinner. I was shocked. No one has ever done this, and automatically I already felt a connection towards him. He really cares about the community and the youth and takes extra time to give testimonies at workshops and the monthly weekend retreats for the younger kids. He is always proper, wearing a suit and tie and always is the most respectful guy in the room, thus commanding respect from everyone else in the room. When I saw this recognition event, I felt called to write about Rev. Yang. If anyone deserves recognition as a great pastor and community caregiver, Rev. Yang definitely embodies the role and has earned my respect.
