

A Testimony:

"The stories made me reflect on my own story, and lessons I can learn in my own life. So often in life we follow the thought processes and patterns that our parents, and grand-parents before them, have shown us. How do we break our bad patterns, and set a new precedent so that we can truly become Lords of Creation? Do we really believe we can? Having attended this workshop I feel a lot of hope. The Divine Principle is meant to revive us and that is what I felt from this workshop. It is life-giving, it is applicable, it is healing."

Details

During the workshop, as well as talks there will be discussion, guided reflections, games, opportunities for questions and answers, a prayer night, singing and laughter. We will also have an outing together, including a tour of Avebury stone circle – a world heritage site – and a cream tea in the picturesque market town of Marlborough.

A workshop exploring Bible stories

If you don't know the trees you may be lost in the forest, but if you don't know the stories you may be lost in life.

— Siberian Elder

People think that stories are shaped by people. In fact, it's the other way around.

— Terry Pratchett

The stories we tell literally make the world. If you want to change the world, you need to change your story.

— Michael Margolis
