London, United Kingdom -- UPF-UK held its Annual Peace Council, drawing together Ambassadors for Peace, long-standing friends, branch chairs, and others from across the United Kingdom.

Areas of activity, such as the work with Young Achievers, Women's Empowerment, Family and Marriage and the Inter-relationship of Religion and Politics, were all included in the meeting, held at the UPF offices on December 14, 2018. Updates from UPF activities around the world were given.

A series of videos from the event have been uploaded on YouTube and can be accessed through this link. Photos of the afternoon are posted here and here.
